Certain conditions/ lack of particular body parts i.e. tissues, organs – may be a contradiction to the treatment, as it might result in a dangerous responses and possibly even death.

Understanding, that you might be possibly allergic/ have a serious reactions, due to known & unknown reasons or a trace contamination of the specimen: causes, an always obligatorily requirement for the usage of smallest possible product sample (as suggested: even smaller that a minimal dose of it, #3.29A). Enabling yourself time – through the first few repeated dosages: to understand the substance and the reaction of your body, is a necessity – as lack of it, might end in your painful death (e.g. through suffocation in an allergic reaction).

of it. Be a guard of morality at all cost and understand, that knowledge and understanding imposes on you a need for responsibility and the highest morals which are required for the good of all. Therefore, it is only viable to make others match your level of understanding and ever-existing pattern of morals, and to impose them either through a positive/ negative actions and consequences, that are superimposed on you – in a time of attaining them. Those on the bottom: are the primary concern for all, as those are the people that should be brought to a higher level of spirituality, due to their lack of incentive/ understanding and being fortunate as you, to have the right kind of tools and circumstances to bring the change (those are people, that require help but in an open and helpful manner, first in the queue).

Avoid at all cost, to impose on others your will by force, but instead show an example by your actions and inspire, also by sharing – they might not be ready, in that time for change: although tell/ punish and avoid to allow anyone – immoral behavior, even for the stake of taking damage by yourself and show always no-tolerance upon such actions towards you or others. Provide and explain the rules that need to be followed by any person that populates this realm of reality – density, for the stake of attaining the best, that can be received and to His best for one's self and all others in the sphere of their influences (μ , #1.1). It's a moral duty, for any of the intellects who exist in this Universe.

Keep in mind, that you are the only one responsible for your actions and nobody can think or impose them on you. It includes refraining and to deny any order or quote, with or without explanation of the cause – when it might be sensed, as not true with your inner conscience or in the place of moral justification. You're the only one, that would be held accountable for your actions and you would suffer the consequences: without the need of any law or persecution – caused by the work of those mechanisms implemented in this Creation, #1. It's also applicable to teaching others and showing them the consequences, of taking them – those actions which are required by their superiors or people attached. Make sure: you would always take an action if only influenced, even if such occurrence is probable – without the need of any evidence. Be wary of the people you attach yourself with and choose only those who are contributing to your life in a positive manner (evil is such consideration, always). However, be conscious to always be as yourself – living to your highest means and the usage of your highest potential possible. It is your personal duty: to repay the debt you were born into this World as due to your work and thought attached – increase the life of others and help them become the most moral and most perfect people possible. It would cause the most, of what could be achieved and would bring to your life only the best.

Avoid to ever serve for the bad, as rewards and gains – without putting in: are only a mere illusion and All would be lost in a very short amount of lifespan, bringing you the worst of possible – suffering and everlasting condemnation, until the sins are cleared (which would last: possibly even extent the current lifetime of unfounded and immoral pain, that was brought by you or with your consent, allowance or part – upon others). Morality in this world needs to be restored and it has already started now (all beliefs that are held by people are mostly wrong and need to be resolved, changed in All that are living here within this World – it's all achieved due to constant education and everlasting imposing of the universal rules by All of people, who are holding the knowledge of Moral Laws, #1). All, if not told otherwise – was tested extensively: in various doses and the treatment has been completed. Therefore the process here contained, is safe and 100% verified. It's the highest truth, which revealing has been permitted to better the human race – starting from you, now.

Do you know that feeling for which every person in this reality strives for? The one, that you have after consuming high doses of alcohol or which can be experienced through the usage of a stronger drugs? It's the goal of us all, to feel good and that's the ultimate prize.

What would you do, if were told: that this godlike state of feeling happy – powerful, best and the most loved can last forever and drugs only permit 0.01%¹ of its intensity at their peak level (of 100% that is)? Would you take an action now, if you were told that that – you would be all the time on it – living it, without the consumption of any drugs, after implementation of the knowledge here written?

Would you follow, if you would know that after realization of this text-map fully: you would gain all those qualities you've always desired, turn you life on the best what is possible and make it a living dream of your reality? Having the wealth, the joy – a sense to wake up everyday waiting for more of what it has to offer?

Would you refuse?

This is, how it is. Either take the certainty you've had been given, by finding this work and putting the knowledge to action or suffer the consequences of having not.

It's only your choice. Your personal work and effort would be required, continue.

¹Up to 0.04% is possible, but due to other factors involved – nobody in practice: never experiences it beyond the 0.01% mark (of 100% that is). Usually, it's much less than it.

THE PRELIMINARY PROCESS OF CHANGE

0.01. BEGINNINGS OF UNDERSTANDING

All great journeys begin with finding and setting a worthy-cause to live for. The one, which achievement would set you apart from others and would create a flow of abundance in your life. If you want change – you need to change. It's the only thing that is required, the rest is only just a follow up process that might require certain efforts, tools – means for attainment and this is something you shall find with the appropriate drives.

The process of attaining any knowledge, understanding it with the purpose of its use and growing, is connected to the chakra sphere. Firstly, we encounter fear (which is the lowest, below ourselves): would this work; would I die; what if not; what if I would loose 5 years or what if the results would be poor, not as I wanted; what if somebody has done a joke to use people such as me for their purposes? In the next step, when the previous are answered – partially questioned, it is either skipped in a certain way if there are no warnings, red flags or other means that are sensed wrong. Intended or not: it comes to opening it's content/ taking particular action, but only to the point of 'taking a glimpse' (e.g. reading few words or either sentences from various paragraphs or sometimes even a section, few also read a preface) and assessing does it makes sense, other issues that are valid to the person with a specific belief system, based on the experiences however also temporarily on emotions, state or all the surrounding conditions. We're rather all emotional, indeed very simplistic and commonly lazy, emotion-driven to cover our true feelings that are the source of our actions, even if some may refuse to acknowledge it – we want everything now. We also want to be seen by others in a positive view, and nobody is really free from the least to the end.

Proactive, is the next – if the previous have passed, we're in a state of excitement and want to get everything – now. However, the first enjoyment suddenly drops as the reality sets in. More than 98%+ never really finishes, anything to the end – motivations are high on the beginning only (therefore you've might pay for the gym, go few first times and end up keeping to pay the monthly tariff, for a full year which was imposed). Only the best, who have got a certain brain programming and attributes, with all the conditions attached – really make it, to the end. It's also common, that many influenced by the lower chakras – wants, to 'give it a try' (that is, on the side: a recipe for the failure expectation). Indeed, 95% of them, with such approach – resigns, as they're easily swallowed by the un-important predominantly tasks of everyday life. Therefore only few succeed in life, those that have put their life at the stake to win in it and that have applied all the required, for the purpose of achievement. Under it's done as such by you, try to skip reading the next.

You see, basically the only one difference between those who made it really in life: are the ones who made a conscious decision, that – they would do whatever necessary to succeed and it's done by them, until the very end. Most resign, as there are no benefits in the short-term, the process is hard and there are no shortcuts, but it's only valid to those 5 first years and everything is already – ready to give you, but your firstly need to be prepared. Would you make such decision or do you choose not to?

It would come after you, until you would and the confidence exists that it's stronger in every step: that this is the way, the track that needs to be done – firstly, by allowing a tiny bit of faith – then by applying it to the actions and knowledge gained, to proceed – the time required with those efforts and win in this period qualities, philosophy, All the wisdom, skill and merits that would make you a living success and a glowing example of accomplishment.

Therefore, if you would act as others, with similar thought and participation – you would also have the things that others have and the last, would be rather guaranteed if you would only perform the track. However, despite all the financial gains and having a beautiful wife, home, car and all the other stuff – you would probably somewhere along the way find, that beyond of what you've achieved in your life and the things you've acquired: there is something lacking in it and it's a hole that is so big, either you would probably not be able to identify the causes behind. A happiness would be lost, when you would get to this point and probably you would see that all you've been striving for – has no value really, as there is no fulfillment in having all those things, as they're just things...

You're conditioned to be wary about intentions of others and aren't assessing, that the message here contained may be 100% accurate and serve your purposes for true, as a real deal. We're conditioned that people always want to use us, to be cautious of them, their intentions, to assess the situation and put everything into a disbelief, even if the evidence is staggering. No one really seems to know, that one might not act into taking a financial gain from the actions pursued, as most of the people who think so – blinded by the monetary: do see their reflection of thinking, upon others. Firstly there is an idea, where the minor rest – although very rarely, usually might have a completely different point of perspective and set of values and therefore thinking, due to their extensive knowledge and understanding. The one which would be not known to you as to the benefits and in result: you would completely deny and leave – or rather become open to what they have to say, as they've might know more and most of the important things – that may be potentially envisioned by you, without this wisdom.

Invisible Laws that work in this reality guarantee, that if a person responsible for the intentional harm or serving of an immoral cause, would even achieve His goals: he would be severely punished, in time – that would be quite extended, to not influence the free will (so yes – always be careful, but predominantly understand that in this realm: there is really nothing you need to be afraid of – acting immoral is the worst possible outcome that would be served back upon All the people who do such upon others, through their actions). This physical world is a mere expression of those hidden and working behind the curtain Laws: which enforce always, with no intentions but by the consistent nature, to forever perform similarly as pre-programmed machines. You can't escape, understand it.

Nature is your enemy, who needs to be conquered as all is wrong. It should not however, be perceived as that, but rather as a crucial point of reference: of what is bad. Natural, pre-built in us drives and programming: that we get on the birth, like e.g. comparing ourselves to others, seeing what they've achieved/ what they have/ how they're much better from us, in a certain way but also a feeling that somebody is wrong, without the preemptive test of his knowledge – sometimes beyond our understanding: we tend to reject. The last, needs to be dealt immediately, right now: drop then any beliefs, superstitions or even things like judging, prejudice or any other towards this work. It's all a false, as comprehension – isn't possible to be overcome in those categories or set of values, due to things you were blinded by. You can run, but you won't escape from it so it's better to do it right now, as this is the moment: all, in order to get a deeper understanding – to experience the change as fast and easily as possible, to rip the gains – leaving all the hesitations behind and to abandon the old ways of looking and judging this reality. By implying your Ego in the process or any other: you're blocking yourself the ability to receive and stopping all that is and wants to become a part of your reality (let it all go: just enter the process with the faith of a child with no understanding, beliefs – and knowledge, trust it). Those who do as such – win, those who don't – their Ego might be a winner, but they would eventually loose as your problems would come back in time, because of the causes which weren't changed. In simpler terms and – it's always hated by everyone to acknowledge, but it's the truth: there is only one way to happiness, and it's the way here presented – you would need to find it, on your own with the usage of tools, methods and all the knowledge that is demonstrated as being the most important, in existence.

You can't simply be told what to do and it's impossible to change a person by only doing so. Permanent adaptation is only achieved: when you understand – why the actions performed are hurting you, what to do to change them and it needs to be presented in an approachable, straight and easy manner. The work needs to be done, only in a matter compatible by the person who lacks, have the will and the desire to become the best self and therefore gaining by his actions, consistent with the existing Laws – All the expected and searched values, things and qualities in your life.

You've might also wonder why, if 'I've found' and invested time into finding the most secretive and elite knowledge existing – to share it with anyone? Why not to just use it, hide and become the best – gaining all for myself that exists? Well, it's again: nature, to get All for ourselves – the natural will to receive, not to bestow. Drive, that needs to and would to be conquered in the process, as it's the main enemy of any receiptal. Essentially, there is a need to understand that when others succeed – you're also winning, as they – by their work, are improving your life. Imagine, that everybody who you have known has got money, knowledge combined with the deep understanding and is highly moral so he can always be trusted with your life/ to always help you advance. Wouldn't it be a great thing to experience? Know, that spoils of their success would be yours also, from the very definition – so you would also become, more powerful.

In this reality, only those who have invested their time and effort would achieve such – therefore you shouldn't resemble any greatest fears, that they would get X times – amount of money, then disappear and not even say thanks on the end – and it would be only a merit of yours by giving them this piece of knowledge. Forget about the last: it works the other way/ never would work, as such. In essence, and it needs to be understood deeply – that on the clouded behind your eyes level, the metaphysical one (invisible, similar like e.g. the Law of gravity): you're performing a work, that would add to your success, as you've conquered this fear of others gaining or attaining more than you. In fact, there is nothing really to be feared as they would only succeed – if they would change and you, by helping them to do so: would increase your pace of success, by either those hidden Laws that count the progress of your spiritual² development.

You've might think, that why should you give to anyone if 'No one' gives to you? For instance you've might wonder, that why to buy people/ friends alcohol/ food/ serve etc. where nobody from them – hasn't bought or served you? In reality, it's a question that is answered No, immediately. So, the next follow up question is: is it right to do so? If you're doing it from the good will, surely not to experience any benefits – it would come back, not necessarily in the form of a drink/ things served by you and it's guaranteed. Although, the Laws are set in motion – that by the time you would remember about it: the next 5, 10 or 15 years from precisely this moment – it would come to you in another form and be rewarded, fully and beyond. It needs to be dropped, completely – the lack mentality, 'if others don't do I won't also' because it's an illusion. You first need to become a glowing example by yourself, so as others – who are guided by the fear, lack and not enough for everyone – thinking: might be inspired by you and join the people who are free of the illusion of five senses – to become just as you – successful, inspired who would desire to follow up the process that leads to change, which guarantees to give only those who are ready (although certain attributes apply also to giving and need to be followed, #1.2). Remember that, it applies to all the good caused and it comes in a various forms, under a different people, circumstances or events – in the best time possible and actually this wisdom, holds the key to understanding the secret of a happy life (as giving the best, brings you back only the best and promotes you to experiencing the desired – dream of, imaginable).

It's All that is required for you to understand and be open to, at this moment. Share now, publish or give away this work to at least to 2-3 of people you want to be in a partnership with, to build with them a business/ joint venture in the years to come, with the highest success for your personal gain only (mostly: people, who you do respect). Additionally allowing it, to be seen by others might trigger for you a positive Karma that would be particularly helpful in this task as it would allow and may possibly unlock the mechanism to receive, so it's only up to you if you spread it on various forums, p2p networks or in any other way share it with others, by allowing them to find it. It's only your choice.

Do it right now and after its completion solely – proceed to the next page.

CHANGE is not about understanding, but about the ACTION and only those who do the last are the true winners. Take it now, from the present moment and continue up until its completion/ of the process. You've already started the movement and it would be easy to continue it, by executing everything immediately upon reading.

- Know, that you're only required to read at best the first few pages forward at time and implement them to your routine/ being limited only to those in boxes. It's all required. Three months from now on, are sufficient to apply all the other important teachings – making them your habits and in result – change your life immensely, only on the very best. Follow all the lessons in order specified, as one leads to another and the latter might not work or not work properly when changed. Continue then and implement upon reading, as it's easy.

/ You should read this book: when you're in a need – to use relevant information.

0.1. FIRST STEP

In order to achieve specific goals – you need to act in a purposeful, methodological manner. Making it more simplified: there is usually only one³ way – where it can be achieved, the most efficiently and it needs to be always performed as such. You need to do whatever needs to be done and it involves certain patterns of actions.

In life you must always use what works, to save more time for yourself.

In order to implement changes: certain items/ elements or tools would be required to be introduced from the material world.

Your first task then, involves acquiring files.

#1. Dantalion Jones - Delta Success Programming - Part 4 - CD04-11 - Psychopathology of Success

#2. Paul McKenna - Positivity - CD02 - 07 - Attracting Wealth

All in order, to perform today – your first induction with the usage of them (see the directions of use, below).

The #1 one would introduce to your subconscious mind THE PATTERNS OF SUCCESS (specific methods of action that work ³You use what works the best and is the best, in existence – having more time for yourself to spend (relaxing, etc.).

the best and produce the most prolific results, ever possible or that have been ever achieved – they were all identified and all was implemented in this programming). Implying it in other way: you would become a person of Success, just as that⁴.

The #2 programming, would cause you to change your mentality – get rid off all the patterns that might possibly sabotage the process and in result: you would attract wealth to your life, due to switching from the lack thinking to the Wealthy person – yes, just as that.

However, in order for the both to take an effect on you: there is a certain procedure that needs to be followed, through a specific minimum amount of time. It won't work if done otherwise, so you'd better make sure to make it happen as your absolute fractional effort is required, at least on the beginning – to create a habit.

⁴You fears would disappear, you would be able to do everything that you've ever wanted – you'd start to act in a methodological, useful and purposeful manner with a plan of action/ & many more: becoming better every day (it would progress with time, as you'd become more knowledgeable due to those patterns of actions, that would become implemented in you).

You put those two recordings in an order specified (#1 goes the first on the playlist, #2 follows) on your audio device, that has got connected earphones (not headphones, but earphones). The last must be adjusted to the specific ear drums (left one goes to the left ear and the right one goes for the right). You play those, one after another – twice everyday: after wake up and before going sleep, immediately (allowed is only to do a fast toilet before)/ which consists the first and the last hour of the day, for a full year time (those required 365 days). Everyday, you listen to those both recordings and take an active participation in them, by following the instructions that are played. If you occasionally feel asleep in the process – it's alright, it can happen but make sure only that it won't repeat the next time. If you would skip a day or two in a week – it's acceptable, but ensure it would be done everyday for a full year.

If the time seems extended for you – you'd better start now. It would start to take an effect, soon after probably the first three months – in most instances, therefore start the habit. However, you should continue – independent of the effects you would feel, as pace has been set and the rest would be replaced in time, after. It's all that is required.

Change won't happen overnight – it takes time. Do it at this current moment, immediately – as if you won't, it won't ever be probably done.

DO IT now, TODAY – to the end of it or more if needed (finding the records, setting up the device to execute the process successfully – take an hour, week or even a month but ensure it's done).

Until it's not: it's forbidden to proceed.

Note. If you're a foreigner and don't know or know little English – it's required for you to find a transcript (text) of the audio: translate it to your native language or ask someone to do it for you/ even pay somebody for it, and then – learn all on your memory, to be able to recognize the spoken words. It's the work which has to be done, by you.

Until it's not done: you can't proceed.

Follow the rules, there are set to protect you – not to limit and if such is done: the best, would be achieved. It's an obvious matter, therefore follow them for yourself and your greater purpose.

In the terms of the Universe, it's simple: you either do it the right way and get the desired results, or you break them and you're severely punished (depending on the mistake, error done; no forgiveness, no lifeline, no argument or getting to feel your problems/ ideas/ any other that might influence your decisions). It can't be much more simplistic, so recognize the pattern.

Firstly you need to believe, to see the evidence in your reality.

It's an absolute certainty, that after introduction of this knowledge to your life – you would rip the greatest benefits, so make a conscious decision to do whatever is necessary to apply those teachings.

End now, until above are successfully executed.

TAKE ONE SMALL, BUT INCREMENTAL CHANGE⁵ AT A TIME.

Forbidden is to read any further.

It's forbidden to proceed, until the task from here hasn't been completed.

Take a day of successful inductions, before you would continue. It's forbidden to proceed – until you won't perform them.

Focus/ as it's very important information for you: consider it, take the appropriate steps.

⁵Do you want to be a success or a failure? Ask yourself definitely this question. If you want to be a person of success, accomplishment i.e. the rich, powerful and fortunate: you ~~have to~~ must be backed by the appropriate brain programming to rewrite it – for success. Without it: it's impossible and you're likely to stay a failure (even if you've got or had some achievements in the past or present). You ~~rather never would be/ or become~~: if you won't introduce those specific recordings to your life – today. All, to begin: the process of rewriting your brain/ those who only want become, not taking the action – won't become.

At the present moment there is a very real threat of your death due to consumption of GE⁶ foods, which components are secretly included in nearly all of the currently processed foods, meats and drinks also being extended to non-organic fruits and vegetables. If they might not kill you instantly: they're causing a constant damage to your body, which is never felt when the organism is in relative shape. It would probably cause your death, as millions who were covertly killed already due to the diseases that seemed natural. The danger is real and very serious.

Therefore, introduce the full health restoration, #3 immediately/ start from #3.1 to allow yourself time to switch on safe foods.

If you're not following: perform the changes first until they would be done – completely and forever.

It's advised to start the full health restoration immediately, #3: parallel with the process, #2 and implement all the rest, #1 & #4/ with the #0.1 programming – obligatorily, now.

Most people need confirmations and knowledge, before they would engage into anything – it has been provided and the work has been started, the way it's supposed to: from introducing the moral stance as a core of any achievement, explaining through example – the opposite approach and all which is required to perform at your best. Then, follows all the rest.

However, it's not the way it's supposed to be done, but because it's needed for a conviction – it's been left as such (although for you applies eating only organic foods, as mentioned above so proceed with it, if not followed yet). Notice that any further changes require, absolutely programming from #0.1: to be already introduced, in order to complete everything – as those are the best tools yet in existence, which would make you successful. It's the last warning.

THE FOUNDATIONS OF YOUR NEW MORAL PHILOSOPHY

Before you would engage in any process of change – you need to sort things on a metaphysical level, as they would interfere it or even block any attainment. You need to be completely clean on the level of thoughts: hold no resentment, let go of any non-attached to the goal issues. You need also to have a set of instructions, on how to act towards others and how the rewarding and punishing mechanisms work. All in order to establish your new way of successful living, which would provide you the required foundations for any progress and development.

It all goes through the understanding and forcing yourself to act along the Laws which operate in this reality: until your actions and patterns of thought, won't become your true nature.

1.01. THINGS TO REMEMBER

Keep in mind that knowing – isn't enough. You need to build those characteristics, as a pattern of your automated, daily responses.

1.1. MORAL LAWS: REWARDS AND PUNISHMENTS FOR BREAKING INTENTS OF THE CREATOR

This realm has a purpose and invisible Laws which enforce goals for it. Based on their following – you would either have a fulfilled, happy life or suffer the consequences of breaking them, which would lead to your decay and death.

1.11. MORAL FIELD AND PARASITIC PHILOSOPHY

Every living person is subjected to the work of the invisible Laws which govern your fate and all other aspects of your life including: success, happiness, fulfillment, circumstances, well-being, prosperity and all the remaining. The last, are highly connected and bond with the moral field which stands for the core of any achievement.

Each one of us has a metaphysical value of this energy accumulated within him, that remains hidden behind the eyes (however, which is felt or able to be distinguished – based on the physical and psychological traits). It would be marked later in the text as μ and can be pictured as an 'invisible battery' which everyone holds (like on the image below).

The great majority of people/ you although, without the knowledge of moral field – for nearly all your life, constantly have the volume of $\mu \sim 0.4$: never reaching any other states of the soul as such, to be experienced – with the drop commonly occurring, after finishing of your active years.

LEVEL OF MORAL ENERGY (M)	CONSEQUENCES
---------------------------	--------------

State characterized by a feeling of an UNIMAGINABLE HAPPINESS & POWER/ beyond everything that you can comprehend, summed up together. The intensity of it, which is reached on this value of moral energy, can't be told or explained – as it's Universe beyond what is to be experienced in yours whole life or you're capable to grab with your senses (it can be summed metaphorically as being crushed by the ocean of all the happiness existing, that is released in a split-second and which could last forever). It's the Ultimate Prize from the Universal Intellect (God) for living up to the means, He has set in this reality (being a feeling of a godlike power, extreme happiness and love extended by many more and the one, which not even shade of – can be experienced through the usage of substances like: alcohol, in high dosages or a much more stronger drugs⁷ / i.e. Holy Grail). It's the feeling everybody strives for and would give everything he has, to be permanently in. The last brings also untold other benefits.

 $\mu > 0.6$
 (High byond belief)

⁷ The last, in practice: resemble up to 0.01% intensity of the 100% that is experienced in this state/ being limited to not even a breath of the single sensation – power for instance, dependent on the type of a drug.

Knowledge, Illumination and The Path of The Light Worker

Those on this state are adored by others and attract them to themselves. They're greeted with sympathy of everyone around and it's shared back. They have a feeling of an ever increasing happiness in their life – their sense of fulfillment is heightening and they're filled with happiness.

Adoration
 $\mu > 0.5$
(Feel good)

Considered friendly: they're nice, helpful, oriented in a positive manner towards the world. Focused on their lives: they put favorable contribution to the society. They're accompanied by laugh and moments of joy. Their life can be described as happy.

Friendliness
 $\mu > 0.35$
(Feel normal)

This is a boundary state between the moral philosophy and a parasitic one. People usually are very silent, not to be seen or noticed: by others.

being Unnoticeable
 $\mu = 0.35$

Provocative
 $\mu < 0.35$
(Feel little depressed; false confidence)

Marked as provocative and hard to live with. They don't have problems with doing everyday tasks. If they wish – they can be nice to others, although they tend to blast with emotions. Characterized as despotic (not respecting opinions, implying their will, uncompromising), competing for gaining advantage over others, blackmail, usage of force – violence, double-dealing etc. All those immoral actions are harmful⁸ to them.

Malaise
(Lethargy, Inertia)
 $\mu < 0.2$
(Feel depressed, empty)

People on this state: start to do everything disproportionately complicated and practically impossible for them becomes the completion of any work. The consequences of their words are never actions. They start to lead an unproductive, parasitic and causing anxiety to others lifestyle. They live at the expense of others. States of deep depression and lack of interest, in their person are also present – which in most instances may lead to a spectacular 'suicides' (e.g. public mutilation of themselves, although auto-destruction attempts are taken only in the face of a certainty: that the help would be served by other people who would not

This process occurs independently. People on the low amount of moral energy, aren't able to perform any action to bring upon them – death/therefore other people are used or accidents caused. It's a very non-pleasurable way of dying, as it leaves for those people, who know the person – an unpleasant memories. Such units are characterized by the 'moral vampirism' which has a goal to extend their moment of agony (extreme physical or mental suffering, difficult or painful death). The last comes after – under the form of a usually 'random event' which might be a car crash, falling from the window, drowning, freezing in a winter, burning in a fire yet also a bacteria, virus/ disease or a health condition, and it only sometimes: brings a form of the meaningful death/ i.e. suicide.

If you seek people¹⁰ with Nirvana: look for the newborns – moral field¹¹ they're surrounded by, is powerful as it's the natural state (notice, the attraction caused).
Anything below Nirvana is low.

⁹
Death can come also at higher states of the moral field: if only the person resigned from development and refused to play this game, #1.11xF/ failing many attempts to turn him, from the wrong – undesired for him, track.

¹⁰
Animals are also born in Nirvana/ look for instance for all those small, little 'cute' kittens – dogs, etc.

¹¹
Moral energy, is described the best, as: power/ i.e. its alternative name.
Those who have it – are the ones truly powerful: those who are stripped out of it – are referred to as powerless.

Below characteristics, allow you – to identify and recognize those who felt below $\mu < 0.35$.

- LOOK AND BEHAVIOR AIMED ON GAINING AND ATTRACTING ATTENTION.

The less moral energy (μ) you have: the more energy you put into attracting the attention of others. Shocking look and behavior becomes a goal in itself. A warning signs might be: hair painted in a non-typical color (e.g. blue or green), beard, mustache (if the religion not forbids its shaving), earrings in tongue or ears (the last, specifically in men's case), controversial tattoo, eye-catching colors, attracting focus by clothes or any other way of gaining others attention. It's also valid to the negative behavior i.e. causing problems: the necessity to be always in the center of attention. Those with high moral energy attract interest of others – in a natural way, due to their powerful field by which they're surrounded, also loosing interest – in gaining anybody's attention.

- PROCRASTINATION.

'Not do anything, until somebody would force you to' / interesting phenomena, which is attached to it – is a common search for the justification of yours actions, in order to not feel guilty for delaying realization of the tasks. 'Later' however never comes. Procrastination never solves any problems, but only generates them.

- AGGRESSION, HOT TEMPER, ANGER, CAPRICES AND OTHER EVIDENTIAL ON THE SUPREMACY OF EMOTIONS OVER THINKING.

Includes also lack of control over emotions. Your lower amounts of moral energy (μ) cause a higher tendency to cause conflict, battles (also the physical ones), attacking of others or to take actions which bring relief to the accumulated emotions and aggression. You're as such easily upset, everything irritates you, and you blow with anger – show temper and inclinations to oppress others.

- INDECISIVENESS.

When you have a low amount of moral energy: you aren't able to choose from things, which can bring you more benefit. You often change once made decision or delay it: counting on somebody's suggestion (as in the event, if something goes wrong: blame this person) etc. In effect: it indulges a habit of procrastinating with every decision as long – as it's possible, changing your mind and avoiding to take the final stance (decisiveness is crucial to create any success, therefore if you can't mind up your mind due to the low level of moral energy – cooperation becomes impossible).

- THE LEVEL OF COMPLEXITY AND AMBIGUITY.

When you're low in this energy – you act in an incomprehensible and illogical manner. Your expressions are characterized by complexity and you never express outright. Such ambiguity and complexity relates also to your relationships, connections and is noticeable when working with you (it's hard to get clear of what is wanted and how to get it, as you're non-systematic – it disallows any progress or finding any common ground for any achievement).

- USING AND EXPLOITING OTHERS.

Increased tendency to turn others into your slaves: using them also to perform your work. In the beginning of this stage – its first signal: is constant asking of others for help. In end, all you undertake – leads to a catastrophe.

- UNBEARABLE BEHAVIOR – INCLUDING THE TENDENCY TO SHORT-LIVED ENTHUSIASM.

You're inconsistent in your intentions, views, relationships, decisions etc. This affects all aspects of your life: not only in the emotional sphere or a sexual life. It's characterized by your troublesome behavior (any cooperation with you is either forced on many obstacles and in time progresses to being impossible: not worth the time, to loose on).

- NOISINESS.

'Empty vessel makes the most noise' / the less moral energy you have: the more noise you produce – the louder you speak, the more people are engaged in what's done, the more you announce your achievements – the more sources of noise are activated. Noisiness is a potent warning sign for trouble. Your low moral energy levels are equal to i.e. problems, failed investments and all the others, undesired (being extended also to institutions etc.).

- SARCASM.

Aiming to cause harm in other people, creates a misery without the consequences of such act. It might be evident for such you – to mark for the weakest spots in other people, usually the weaker – in order to do harm, upon them.

- HYPOCRISY.

Is based on the gap between of what's said and what's done – words that are said in person and beyond the back, words and the reality. In you – a person with the lower moral energy levels: it's noticeable that the both usually – never match, as different is done (the reality) and told, to the others.

- DESTRUCTIVE ADDICTIONS AND DEVIATIONS.

You, with the lower morality (moral energy): is often trapped into addictions and/ or deviations – the practices which harm you, by the drop of your moral energy, μ (drugs/ pharmaceuticals which increase the release of it: lead to even higher deficits; through your immoral actions: you're severely punished by the invisible Laws).

Moral energy is the key to success, understanding, performing and happiness in life.

It's responsible for the effects you're able to get in your life and it's directly connected with the amount of free will you have. In this world: there are only 2 types of people and they're only connected to the value of moral energy. Everybody/ you represent one of them and it either requires a conscious effort or to follow the nature. The first brings all the best (construction, life), the last

– all the worst (destruction, death).

– Share this document now with others, preserve it – by saving on various memory cards, devices. Burn it on CD/ DVD and/ or print – hide it to keep forever in circulation (if you haven't done it already). It needs to be dealt immediately – as if you procrastinate: you've might one time loose the access to it – forever, as people representing the parasitic/ overrun by nature mentality – would very probably want to destroy it, remove or at best: keep only for themselves, as it happened many times in the past (books were burned, to keep the people powerless).

Save it and secure it, immediately – now.

Your action is required at this moment and do it for – yourself only.

PHILOSOPHY

TOTALIZM/ MORAL GOOD

Totalizm and parasitism are two opposed philosophical extremes, which do nearly everything in an inverse manner: Due to its aggressiveness and lack of moral balance – rarely parasites are sworn enemies of the moral people – rarely living in peace and attacking them with every arising opportunity. Those differences bring a key to understanding who is who and who pursues which philosophy.

#1. YOUR SENSE OF RESPONSIBILITY OR ITS LACK.

It's the most important element which allows to immediately and without any error/ combined with others – distinct the two. This sense, stays beyond the cause-effect mechanisms that governs who belongs to each category of people. This sense, or the lack of it – is also directly responsible for all the qualities of totalizts. For instance, fact that parasites never help each other, is mainly caused by their lack of responsibility.

You're feeling personally responsible for the effects of all your actions, events that you've took a part of or the results: you've got influence on.

#2. THE RULE YOU ACT: TOTALIZM ALWAYS HELPS – PARASITISM ALWAYS INTERFERES.

Essence it applicable to all aspects and outcomes of those two opposing philosophies. It arises from the way-of-acting of the both, such as summed below/ it's a forever ongoing fight of good vs evil.

You're guided by the rule: 'always pedantically obey Moral Laws' (as a result of listening to the voice of conscience).

#3. BECOMING A FOLLOWER OF THE PHILOSOPHY.

Due to a conscious choice (as you consciously want to do in your life only what's moral and to avoid doing immoral/evil).

#4. PERFORMING YOUR EVERYDAY DUTIES AND DECISION MAKING.

Anything you want to accomplish: you first check whether it's moral and then after – you realize it. You transform the task to a moral one – if you've sensed it's immoral.

#5. ABILITY TO PREDICT CONSEQUENCES OF YOUR ACTIONS.

Due to a different practiced philosophy: totalizts & parasites have two opposed approaches to the repercussions of actions performed.

Firstly you predict¹² consequences and if only those are for you acceptable: you took an (any) action.

#6. YOUR MOST IMPORTANT CARE.

In all you do: you strive to make it for the good¹³ of other people/ for the well-being of a specified person. For most: your actions are guided by the morality, lawful behavior, honesty, helpfulness, loyalty etc.

You represent one of the side. If it's a moral¹⁴ philosophy – you're good however it could be much better if you're still not in Nirvana/ #1.1, but if it's the immoral side of it and you've been overcome by the sickness of the soul: if you won't change – worst would happen in your life (as it started, already).

If you're a parasite: just find yourself a purposeful job aimed at changing your situation/ start to do it with the highest intent – at your best & cease completely any immoral actions.

¹² As totalizts are forced always to predict the consequences, prior to any action: for all their lives they practice the process of thinking, before entering any activity. It becomes your natural habit, in time.

¹⁴ Those earlier symptoms of moral energy drop below $\mu < 0.35$ i.e. parasitic disease: might not be visible/ if so.

If you would break Laws operating here: you'd bear the consequences. It's only up to you.
Being conscious who is who – is essential in the first approach to the subject, because it allows you to clearly be more protective of self, when involved in such interactions.

STOP RIGHT NOW AND EXECUTE

Take a pen, draw the table with two columns as below.

TOTALIZTS	PARASITES

Identify people surrounding you and place them in the table – only those, who you may think are parasites. They've might be your family, friends, closest circle but also employers and many other.

Names with the description, of the soul states might be a hint – look for them, in those people/ #1.1: however avoid to be tricked by parasites who seem and act nice, as they usually want something that you've got (typically if somebody makes you constantly angry/ is provocative towards, causing your emotional reactions – it should be a warning signal of his low level of moral energy, μ). Parasites never smile (or the last is faked which is noticeable, immediately) and it's all written on their face¹⁵

It's the first step: to start change your nature, which is required to get the desired/ #2. Take it seriously.

ASSIMILATE THIS KNOWLEDGE – LOOK AT THE TRAITS, CONTINUE AS

Take a day or more if needed/ perform those tasks.

1.IIX. PROTECTING YOUR LEVEL OF MORAL ENERGY

Until knowledge about on how to protect your reserves of moral energy is attained and used in your everyday life – there is little or no sense at all, to get to go any further. It's required for you to know, on how to hold to it before the last would be drained from you by others, through your emotional/ incorrect responses. Actions preceded by thinking which go along the line of highest intellectual resistance: bring an increase in moral energy (i.e. commonly the 'hard' but *right*¹⁶ choices, to take). However, it depends on the situation always, which one is the correct: the common thing, is that effort once done consciously, is firstly – easier to repeat, then it becomes – an automated response which allows you to execute it, without any work from your side/

¹⁵ They're: ugly, empty (evil)/ if you only look for the part (as a first-thought: it has got nothing to do with the physical looks). They're bitter on the face and usually constantly talking/ seeding intrigue – looking for ways to extract the moral energy. Those might be the people, which are surrounding you – currently. If you've got offended: you've might be a parasite – skip this step in such instance (see previous page)/ come back only when you've advanced in the moral field, i.e. you would know as your character would change. It's required to get for your life, the desired: to start, the process/ #2.

as thinking, has been performed in the past, which contributes to the increase.

As a primary task: you should learn first to identify attacks which sole purpose is to steal from you the moral energy – perpetrated by others, who represent the opposed – parasitic philosophy/ those, who slipped below the μ level of 0.35. It's important from the reason, that this energy represents you spiritual money – the less you've got of them, the less will you have, the less you're capable of achieving success and basically – you're loosing your happiness by giving it to others, even if unconsciously/ #1.1.

Firstly, understand that parasites¹⁷ attack mainly those targets which are vulnerable. It's done by them, because through their way of living – they're deficit in moral energy, and draining it from others: allows them to continue their easy, comfortable life (and they must to have it, because they decay/ die if not). Methods below are commonly employed.

- CAUSE YOU TO REACT IN AN EMOTIONAL MANNER. Easy, mild rewards – used by the most, constantly.

Variety of techniques are applied, but they use to stick with what works or more precisely: what triggers your reactions. It's exploited and used, in combinations nearly all the time.

Examples might include: interfering or destroying your work, attaching to the non-important issue and pursuing it, name-calling or attaching to friends of family/ other members and saying bad words on them, humiliation, double-dealing, promising something and not giving it/ to deliver, purposeful lying to be found, false-attacking (see below), doing things which are annoying¹⁸ to you i.e. talking all the time, etc.

Most of those immoral behaviors serve them for the bad and deplete but only under one condition: if they've failed to cause your emotional reaction (so it's a double-edged sword). If they're¹⁹ successful: they've gained your moral energy and would follow – what works the best for them. All that causes anger/ other feelings and your emotional responses follow: counts (i.e. screaming, raising tone of voice, blowing with emotions, etc.). If you're not wanting to kill the second person or at least are not, very angry at him – his weakly striving for this energy.

- TRICK YOU TO PERFORM AN IMMORAL ACTION.
Hard to very hard, most rewarded.

¹⁸ Instance, might be seen in Bar Rescue ep. 312 where people affected – responded in opposite of what is desired to protect their level of moral energy: doing nothing or dealing through an emotional reaction – passiveness is worst than any emotional reply, as more of the μ is lost/ however notice that ignorance of attacks not affecting you and your work in the process/ #2 is different (notice, that it's often this way that you're put into a certain position e.g. a bar owner/ your boss and it never should matter, as it's only the illusion – if your boss acts this way: you're likely to lose job anyway or the business would plum due to his low level of moral energy, so it's better for you to leave either way). It might be an exaggerated example but showing you the direction – as in real life: it's usually way too more subtle/ they knew what had to be done – they've told it loud. Appropriate way of acting, would be demonstrated later.

If they're successful constantly: into finding a complying targets – they can live without barely no work at all (usually the victims become very instantaneously drained – it's always an issue²⁰). Examples might include: typically fear is used only as it's the most powerful weapon of a parasite and the most effective – "if you won't beat this guy – I would beat you" so most do it, out of fear.

- CAUSE YOU TO HELP &/ OR CAUSING YOU TO BREAK YOUR OWN WILL.

Easy, mild rewards (as it reinforces their defects – very commonly in the case of first).

If the help isn't needed as the person can easily do it and you're providing it – you're being sucked from this energy. It also applies to the patterns which reinforce defects in a person, i.e. promote thinking-laziness etc. – the last, involves predominantly breaking your will, to help. Moreover, if something goes wrong – you would get a Karma from the parasite. It also applies, that such help is a way to cause your disturbance – and therefore, increase the drain of the energy from you (it also applies to ways of getting you from the job/ #2: when you waste your time by dealing with a parasite who should have been dealt, immediately or either ignored if your work is possible). It isn't told, that you shouldn't help but if you truly feel the last would be beneficial for a parasite as he e.g. would get a job, so he would have the ability to increase his moral energy: you should likely supply it/ when aligned to your will – only.

²⁰ It's the reason, why most of the groups are complemented from few or many moral characters – usually new comers: who want to prove themselves and one or two immoral/ parasitic ones. It's always a challenge, because if the person was brought to the immoral: he becomes to act, on his own and there is a real deficit of people who would comply all the time because of their fears, so you're losing more moral energy than attaining it. It's a downward spiral, as you become slowly and slowly unable to think and more desperate – usually with the sad ending, similar to the one mentioned in, #2.2/ or a prison. You've might be a parasite acting immoral, so acknowledge it.

▪ CAUSE YOUR UNJUSTIFIED FEAR, PITY/ COMPASSION/ A SENSE OF GUILT.

Easy, mild to high rewards dependent on the output of emotions caused – it's commonly more of a supplemental thing.

When you feel a strong emotions i.e. pity, compassion or other which are not the ones which should have been caused, e.g. due to lies, putting himself as a victim when in fact he was not – you, by believing it – without checking: you're loosing your moral energy to that person.

It also implies putting an unjustified blame on you for the things you've didn't done/ or are in your current terms of own thinking: by feeling any emotions related to it (for instance: for waking parasite up/ by being called a trashman/ i.e. where you've didn't or aren't). Methods might also involve telling you: that you've done something wrong, e.g. when drunk and you don't remember – without supplying the evidence or that they've heard somebody told you've done something wrong or talked about you – when he didn't, as they can't prove or name this person/ you're drained when you listen to it, believing – when it's untrue (loose μ after a delay, so you're not able to connect it). It extends also to unjustified fear associated with the threats made, which are without any backing for their actions (if one cries: just laugh, smile and make him feel idiotic/ i.e. ask particularly women: if it always worked). 'Avoid to listen to the evil.' / Avoid to ever believe anyone playing a victim or complaining.

Those primary tactics are the ones which are used, as they're easy – speaking costs nothing and it gives so much. What's simple – works the best. As you might see – it requires for you to think constantly, in every level or any contact with the other people. If you're not trained in spotting those, instantaneously who are below the parasitic μ – you would basically be drained constantly. After such prolonged contacts: you've might feel drained, without the energy – you've already given enough, of your moral energy to them.

Take the list you've prepared before and place it in front.

Think now: how you deal with those people – up to this moment.

Keep to remember, that you're in this game alone. Therefore, it doesn't matter who you're with relation to who or who is more important i.e. mother, brother, owner of a bar or a criminal. It's between you and the source, only. You're expected to perform with a certain traits, every time and you're rewarded by doing so/ severely punished – if not (below stories are just examples of situations involving moral drain of your energy/ #1.1).

For instance if a parasite²¹ would attach and do brawls, because of the single bulb light that is consuming energy for which he needs to pay (a non-important issue, the one – which would cause your anger as an example). Keep calm, do the math – count that 6 hours of lightning with the 60W light bulb costs pennies (not the amounts he presumes, supply the explanations on paper). Always ask repeatedly for him to calm down and do it, in a polite and caring way: he would need to, if he would still want your energy (which prevails always). If it won't help: leave, tell the results (in 1 sentence) and put in front of him the calculations – all.

Another example might involve releasing gas, by not closing it on the kitchen: after the completion of cooking – which might be repeated twice in a row, under the influence of alcohol. It would surely cause your deeper emotional reaction as you were to go sleep and inhaling it all night, the propane-butane mix might prove deadly. Keep again, calm – close the kitchen, ventilate the whole apartment and tell the parasite what he did wrong, instruct him to pay for the damage.

Enforce morality and moral behavior. It's hard, on the beginning but after time it would become your second nature and an automated response. Emotional reactions i.e. screaming, yelling or doing anything which doesn't resolves the problem in a calm, intelligent way – stripped out of emotions and such responses, involving the person (would you like to be screamed at, when you've done something wrong?): depletes you out of your moral (life) energy and you're virtually donating it to the person who caused such reactions or was a victim of (they're called parasites, because they feed on you/ #1.1). Think, before you do.

If you would show weakness once – it's the end for you.
It's a very hard to break the influence, if such mistake has been done in the past.

However, it's entirely possible through the employment of the below tactics: avoid to meet or associate with those, who are parasitic – entirely. If they've met you: say, that you need to go and leave, avoid to engage (you're in a hurry and must go). Fear is their only weapon, usually, so avoid to show it in any way or form – even use a diaper, if required. It's essential for you to break it, completely – see that those people are harmless, despite it might be hard to believe for you, initially (as muscles and past, mean nothing). It needs to be a gradual change. Until, the appropriate time passes and the last won't be dealt (usually the most immoral would leave your area), stay still, when cornered – stay to the very end, nobody would touch you if you won't show the dread – even is so: you would be with very little or no harm at all, but the only thing which matters, is that you've stood and faced them/ never to provoke. Prove you've changed as it would be the test for you to pass.

Next stage, would be to gradually show your new properties: explain, if met on e.g. street or other what happened i.e. you've worked on something/ your grandparent died (must be verifiable truth: you're only allowed to say it ever). If you've made a mistake in the past: admit to it, but if you didn't – repeat, that you would do the same if it would happened today. Avoid to however associate anymore with those people, ever – they're the closed chapter²².

Third phrase is to avoid any contacts or associations with them, completely and forever. Block their phones numbers or change yours, disallow yourself to speak with them. Morality, is what counts.

Pay attention: when somebody aims at extracting energy from you.

You experience all-time moral energy through the state of your being – the way how you feel. When you perpetrate an immoral action i.e. screaming on somebody, who shouldn't suppose to get such treatment/ an emotional reaction of yours: you might feel, as something inside you has been permanently lost/ dropped, forever. A similar event might be experienced the other way – when a parasite attaches to your conscience i.e. by causing you to feel a sense of shame, guilt or any other emotion which shouldn't be by you experienced – due to your trust in his lies or by being used: the drain, begins (it's felt immensely on the higher states of the soul i.e. Adoration+ but can be also experienced at the lower ones).

You're required to focus on this energy deep within and use it as a guide.

You're required to self-develop yourself to a point: where parasites would fear your presence due to the possible repercussions (they would be sucked out of moral energy by you – when you would mirror their moves: would prove yourself a more taught opponent than your enemy). You can only engage if attacked or affected by their actions i.e. in relation, to your goal or goals/ #2: only.

²² You've might wonder why to talk with parasites or meet with such people and allow them to your circle, but it plays a more psychological role: imprints a new you, so they would get to know that you've became the less likely target, for any attack (e.g. as others might be pointed to you, by them)

Avoid to be ever dreaded by any immoral attack.

1. PAUSE. Usually for three seconds or more as it's enough to stop your emotional responses – they would appear, but your role is to conceive them and act as an intelligent being. Pause always automatically.

2. THINK & ASSESS YOUR SITUATION/ REMOVE IMMEDIATELY ANY DANGERS. Is there something which needs to be handled immediately?

Keep calm, remove/ deal with any imminent dangers.

3. DEAL WITH THE PERSON AND DO IT NOW IN A MORAL MANNER.

Your defense must be successful and effective/ i.e. particularly the last.

A) Instruct the person who did wrong – took those harming or interfering actions. Ensure that he knows what he did wrong and would abandon repeating it again. Explain more profoundly: if it's needed and expected truly by the person.

B) If the harm has been done purposely and/ or it's required: make sure he would be liable for the damaged property – ask for the payment, refund and expect an apology. Take an appropriate action, if required: i.e. grabbing him and removing from the premise etc. Forbidden is however to pass beyond the point of means absolutely necessary to remove the danger or progress to more (than continuing to work on your goal requires/ #2) yet also to resolve over any immoral actions like name-calling, provocation etc.

Those are basically reactions: who would be followed by a common sense if the fear/ any emotions i.e. hatred, revenge – would be stripped absolutely. Usually most of people/ you A) predominantly react emotionally, which causes your transfer of moral energy towards the parasite or B) don't take any action at all, commonly also highly punished/ the worst or C) take an immoral one, which is even far more punishable – loss of moral energy is greater.

Your reactions can't be emotional and you must react only in a moral manner: if solely attacked or affected/ & moral = firm, confident, thoughtful i.e. best for everyone, including firstly – you, your self-interest. To be reminded: you're in this game alone – it's only between you and the source/ where you receive your moral energy from/ #1.1. Therefore, you should always view it from the perspective of self: your reactions should always follow – up to the level of requirement, to deal with the threat/ danger – immediately – so you would be able to work on the goals, you've took in the process, #2 – you would understand it fully later, when you would progress with the content.

Your attacks back – should be responsive. Never get into any discussion or fights with any of the parasites: quickly and nicely handle them. It's more than just enough to mind something and leave: to use your energies in a more productive way/ #2.

Mirror always best their moves. For instance if they say to you: “you’re stupid” – reply something alike “you’re well speaking of yourself” and follow it, whenever they take the thread i.e. “you are?”, “who, you?”, “yes, you are” and repeat it all the time etc. – basically, you cut them off by mirroring, so they’re unable to fight and leave (something which is very annoying and leads to a frustration – their emotional reaction, is your gain). Keep smiling by the way, when doing so/ show: you’re not affected.

You can’t ever enable anyone to influence you or to treat in any bad way. It’s required for you – to let the enemy know, that with you: it won’t be easy, from the very beginning and if he decides to: he would get severe losses (moral energy). Physicality is rarely involved. Require proofs and evidence: check all – especially if a person is parasitic in nature// if it’s required for your goals/ #2.

Next, when you encounter anyone who would employ such tactics: be more conscious to what you’re doing upon yourself because by responding with what he intends – you’re loosing by it, your happiness. Deal with it, the right way – from the very beginning...

It’s important to learn it, because moral energy is your longevity, quality and fullness of life – if you’re constantly drained from it:

Knowledge, Illumination and The Path of The Light Worker

the last, is of low value. You're required obligatorily to learn, how to successfully and effectively win those battles and as a side effect: increase your level of it, in each and every account, because – it's the most important thing after the survival means, in this reality/ #1.1.

STOP – UNTIL SUCH RESPONSES WOULD BECOME YOUR SECOND NATURE

It's of the highest importance. Proceed only, when attained/ preliminarily.

1.11XE. UNDERSTANDING THIS REALM

It's a very important knowledge.

On the beginning – it was suspended an infinite droplet of counter-matter which had only two properties: motion and intelligence. Through a continuous movement which took more than half an eternity – a self-conscious programs developed. The one, which seized all the others is called God (UI/ Universal Intelligence) and He gained monopoly over his realm.

After getting to know, what has been possible to be known about His surrounding and the nature of counter-matter: He faced a burning need to expand His knowledge – to have an advantage over the risk of being annihilated by other programs/ which might be possibly created beyond His realm or be unknown. It also served the purpose to get to know Himself better and it allowed – His further development.

Knowing, to not create any competition in His realm: He perpetuated the creation of physical²³ world.

Through trial and error a plan was devised and effects achieved, which allowed to be the most effective in realization of this goal.

A dipolar gravity realm was created, which implicates that everything which exist – is present in the two parallel worlds, at one time.

The substance from our physical world is characterized by mass, inertia, friction and lack of intelligence/ the one existing in the counter-matter has the inverse features: is weightless, self-mobile, super-slippery and possesses a natural intelligence i.e. capable of thinking in its natural state (where the lines of gravity force converge to one border point: to disappear from our world through some sort of unseen barrier to show up in the separate from ours – parallel world). Tapping to this force gives an immense power (it's a knowledge about the nature of matter).

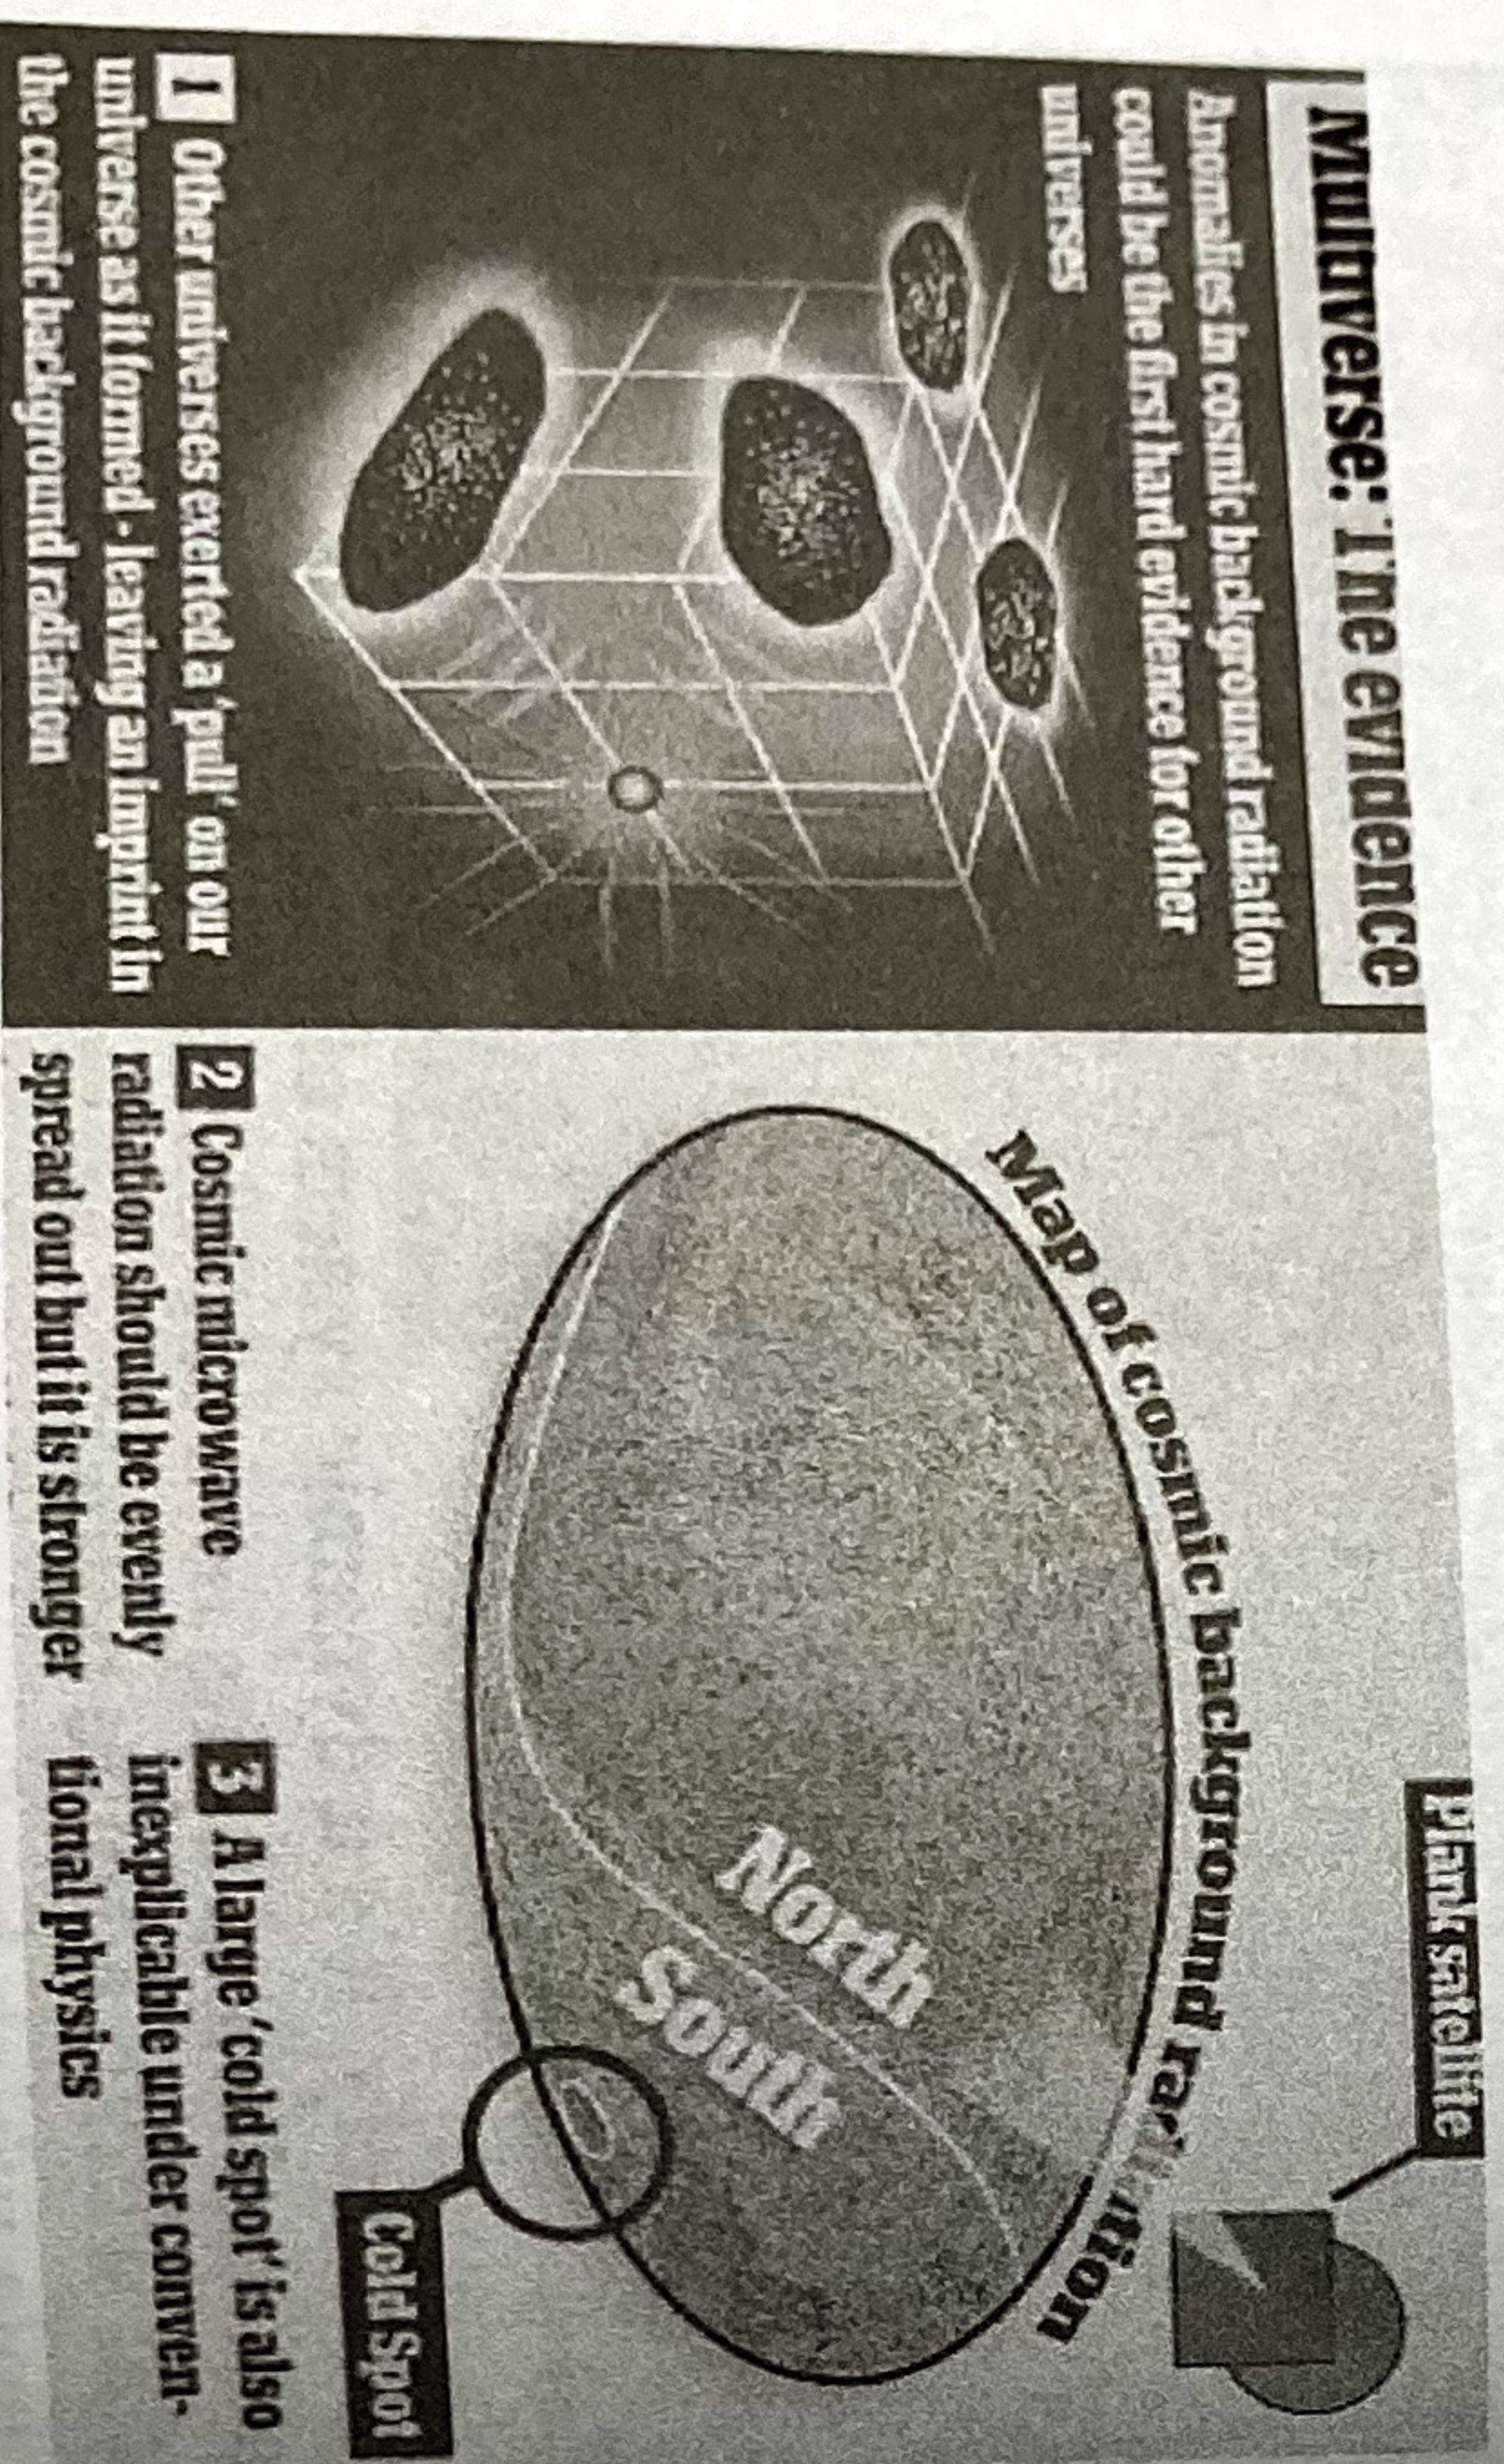

More precisely, it's a dynamic system of expansion and contraction, bound by its own equilibrium, creating infinite potential within a finite boundary. All set into motion by a central black hole which by force of torque creates a two equal and opposite polarized magnetic fields (positive, negative). Atoms²⁴

Atoms are & represent those 'ultra-tiny': unseen to the naked eye, little building blocks from which everything in this reality – is built from, including you.

are not pushed together, but rather pulled together by the "negative" contracting force of sub-atomic black holes, which is why protons (positive) are attracted to center and electrons (negative) are repelled outward. The resulting convergence of two opposite polar charges creates smaller fields of equilibrium known as neutron particles. The convergence of three separate planes creates the perception of a three dimensional reality. Entities were created to help to unravel the unknown – from the black vastness of knowledge. They were allowed to use the counter-matter to think for themselves – similarly as God, but being bound to reality which was created.

However, the purpose for creation resulted from the requirement for survival so an additional plan was brought into this reality. Implications of it are vast and allow to explain all, that is.

Realm of ours, is not the only one. God, is not alone however we populate His world. He is not perfect, He doesn't knows everything and it's not about being good or evil for the people – understand that.

It's all²⁵ about the purpose.

If other realm enters ours – it would mean an immediate war. Counter-matter forces such pressure on the self-conscious programs which developed in it – God: to cause the development and to WIN those battles or to be annihilated and perish, forever/ i.e. imagine blackness or nothing. Therefore, to meet the demands and insure His survival: an additional plan was introduced to create also a very-varied, versatile and unique gods which were prepared to deal with the danger – on their own.

Think about it: a specie procreates to cause the combinations of his many genes, so if a virus/ bacteria would penetrate the defenses – it would kill only a part of the whole specie (organism) as there would be certain units (parts) who are resistant to it. The same is, with the plan.

The thing is, that when those two worlds collide – the fight would be perpetrated very probably on the enemy's grounds, so there would be no protective²⁶ arm of God with perhaps only access to the counter-matter. It's possible that such fight takes already place, somewhere in the Universe.

The current version of this reality features a software-reversible²⁷ time.

²⁵ It's only about the purpose/ to be more precise.

²⁶ Laws, set by Him in this reality/ i.e. in a form of.

You're in this game alone, although cooperation of others is vital to your survival. It's only between you and the source. A varieties of souls²⁸ have been created and are residing in the register (the virtual world) with experiences and attained knowledge²⁹ imprinted in them. Physical³⁰ world, is a merely a testing ground for the preparation of those gods and expansion of the existing knowledge. It's nothing more.

Settings of this world – reflect the God's intents. It must resemble on one hand properties of the survival, deeply embedded into it, but the last usually didn't realizes the purpose of knowledge increase – so morality is imposed. Creatures populating it – must also have a free will, so they would be enabled to use the counter-matter for themselves: to learn the ability of thinking (where, on the last characteristic – an immense pressure is placed). Besides, certain actions need to be rewarded, with some heavily punished. It creates an array of problems, troubles and issues which need to be self-imposed, furthermore God's presence needs to be hidden

It's forever required for you to understand that you're living in His realm: therefore you're obliged to act in a way consistent with the rules set, #1/ if not: you absurdly suffer – to be destroyed as a soul if you won't met the criteria/ #4.49: ending. It can be compared to living in somebody's home where rules have to be met, in order to stay & live. Adapt/ #2: or die.

28
If a person or an animal dies – it loses immediately after: about couple hundred grams in weight. It can't be explained by any other conventional or physical means: soul, escapes through the pineal gland from the body which it previously incarnated.

29
You're born with a certain talents – those are virtually skills and knowledge: which you've attained through persistent work and experience through previous incarnations (it's also extended to 'knowing' certain things and being sure of them, possibly being troubled to explain). All always passes to the next reincarnation, but might be blocked to a certain point on purpose (very rare occurrence – usually something is introduced like e.g. sickness in the early age which has a task to limit those abilities).

30
The world: you live in now.

because religious people – 'God would give to them' / 'God help' which is a waste.
To serve the purpose and to realize the plan...

- You were created maximally imperfect, because usually only stupid and ill-dumb create a variety of problems and the most mistakes: which serves the need for development, brings new knowledge at best. However it couldn't be below the level of anarchy, because it won't bring much development at all, as most wouldn't be able to realize the goals of Creation. To suit it best: genders were introduced, where a man was created slightly above the level of anarchy and woman – as a very important motivator for the first, even below it (therefore a woman needs upbringing, by a strong man which she deeply desires, #4.1 – those who do not posses confidence/ #2.1: as the primary requirement for their development, intelligence and success: are typically exploited by the last, that use those weaknesses).

The perfect and knowledgeable: use and apply their understanding and skill to the tasks, which brings little or no new knowledge contribution (as there is no need or way for improvement, usually).

Everyone is born pain-stupid and imperfect. He needs to work his way up and conquer his limitations (e.g. comfort zone, habits etc.).

- Using the 'inverse rule' to prepare you. Character and desired abilities are shaped through adversity and hardship. If it's good – there is no reason for change. The last forces you primarily to increase and seek for the new knowledge – to solve your constant problems and threats, which serves the higher purpose. Therefore, it's vital to know that there would always be the next step in the way: where you would be obligated to handle it and which might be bothering only to you (for instance if your desire is to become a millionaire – you'd be faced with poverty, e.g. in the childhood). Even, the very rich – they've got problems and issues – way beyond what's known to those who have financially little, as they're constantly faced with the imminent threats (financial loss, bankruptcy, competition, money allocation, investing risks etc.).

- Enforcing survival of the fittest, promoting immorality however silently rewarding only the moral. This double-dealings, can be only understood if you would see it from the bigger picture: you need to be prepared, fight for yourself to become a hardened soldier in the process/ #2 and life – although without attacking and destroying others who might not have stood the chance to grow or reach a certain level of skill (in the battle for life and death, which is to come – it's an obligatory requirement).

- Saving those evil, engaged in immoral activities people from the death/ rescuing you. Knowledge, in order to be attained fully: needs to be followed from the both sides. It's never enough to read or have an education about anything from the books or from those who even did it – to become an expert in the field. One has to acquire the knowledge in practice, by committing those actions. Your value is judged by the ability to learn, on your mistakes/ which is following of the immoral. Besides, it allows you to gain more wisdom/ up to a point, #1.12 and from the purpose: it's the most valuable.

- Passing the line of the 'highest learning effect' also known as the 'path of highest error/ resistance' – associated with taking the initiatives, paying back the Karma/ #1.2 – which also is brought when such the best learning effect takes a place/ or any progress. A persistent effort, with high quality work and decent, high motivations – is required to establish and gain anything/ usually 10,000 hours or more. It does not also imply, that the counter-matter is controlled along the intents, but your thoughts are too (the quality, progress and understanding you've reached at a given time and ability – to do more).

- Promotion of untruths, funny 'soapy experts' for instance e.g. in television or other media: who promote falsehood and knowledge which is useless and not even reaching any far beyond anything. It's all to cause you to search and think for yourself. Those people are often taking high positions and are marked as an experts: having quite an influence of spreading the harm, blocking the development or not doing anything. Truth is being punished, and all the untruths are promoted i.e. relativity theory, expanding cosmos, evolution from an Ape etc./ it won't be even touched.

It's to promote the soldiers, who are created to avoid listening to anyone and to think for yourself: as your enemy would strive to put a fear in you, decrease morale or get you into various thinking traps etc.

- Exerting distorted truth. Everything is being changed or modified, so the original meaning isn't preserved – which changes the whole message. It forces you to rethink: everything – all again. Even this work might be distorted in the future, if the text in its original form – won't be preserved/ spread. Nothing is immune to it. It serves the same purpose, but with the very important notice: your holy books are not guide-written in a stone, as when the time passed, even if they were accurate – they were distorted, by the Laws. It forces you to constantly question all: even if your commands were given from the top.

- Promotion and subjective rewarding of the immoral characters. Your friend or somebody who'd you know went on the dark side. He received a huge support, financial bonuses and all from 'the Devil' as most would perceive. Why you, too – wouldn't take them, if it's only your signature?

If your enemy is able to buy you with favors or a wealth given: you're unworthy – it's the end, for you. You won't get to the Kingdom, as if you were participate in a war of the Universes, being easily attracted to the material – you would betray your own kind, leaving yourself and others who supported you – weakened, and risking loosing all that is. It's a commonly known knowledge that such traits cannot be promoted and are not desired. Temptations are always great, but those people are always punished in the end, because: they're mainly not needed after or their work is either temporary/ all is lost, by them (life).

- The jealous God puzzle. It's exploited by the occult, where certain entities were granted power in order to get humans worshipping them; for instance, they might solve all your problems (change the thoughts of your boss/ creditors/ co-workers/ loved ones, etc. – you can get the winning bets, get all the other benefits you're seeking for, usually for the exchange of some kind: if it's not fulfilled, it's like a death sentence – all would collapse). The majority however worships entities – unknowingly, who give them nothing/ it won't and can't be even touched, nothing more can be added.

If you would be blinded by the benefits and betray your master, going on the enemy side – you're unworthy. You can't serve two masters – only and forever one: from the very good reasons.

Thinking is required in every step. If you've accepted a falsehood and keep it long term as a truth: without questioning or sensing something wrong – you're not an intelligent being, who thinks for himself and doesn't goes with the crowd – your value is not much more of a cattle who gets stranded/ slaughtered.

- Various simulations introduced to this reality to confirm it's an illusion, e.g. by placing a temporary blood-bone people in your reality: solely controlled by the God Laws set by Him and soulless; tapping into your subconscious and causing you to release i.e. your hand, to cause³¹ a certain action or be brought to them – by controlling your thoughts through the mechanisms guiding the wisdom and understanding, also by not allowing you to pick a certain ideas too quickly – before you haven't worked the previous fully, but also happening of the miracles, in your life – which can confirm, that this reality is highly controlled and a grand illusion with a higher purpose.

³¹ Essential to know – is that experts are merely those: who committed/ perpetuated all the mistakes as it prepares you for the achievement (as required by the Laws/ or was learned, before, being, the highest understanding).

It might give you at least a partial answer: why this world isn't as you were hoping for and your life might look not as you wish, yet. Why you're constantly pushed into something: where you would like to rest or take a break, harassed and all the various – left. It might be easier to accept and face it, than to run away – because if so is done/ #2: you would get³² the time for yourself (on the end of each stage).

In order for you to become god, which is a hardened soldier able to stand up for the protection of his world: you need to attain certain characteristics, skills – experience and primarily learn the ability to think. It's commonly accepted, as for example – you won't know on how to do certain things, like e.g. create a multi-billion dollar business from the scratch or many other highly skillful tasks. On this basis: you're placed through various lives into bodies, life ages and situations which have a goal to prepare you and to serve the best, the purpose.

Those who know and follow, flourish – despite the pain involved. Those who don't, suffer.

To understand your reality – you need to know the intents of your master or masters. Without it, it's futile. In this realm you can do whatever you want, but Laws would apply to you as well. It's very easier to play a game, when you know the rules of – what's being rewarded and what's desired, to win in it. Apply it then, to your principles & everyday acting.

/ As you might have already concluded from the text: those souls, which do not met the standards or constantly fail to improve: are destroyed, eternally. It means, the end of you – forever.

Those who would pass the tests thrown at them and would prove their value in the face of God by their actions: willingness to change and the usage of their intelligence – would become gods, which would gain immortality/ #2. You're prepared for your whole lifetimes to become one, but only from you lies the answer whether you would succeed or fail. The most versatile/ the best, prepared: would stand³³ for this reality, in a case of imminent danger.

The rest, who didn't achieved the desired traits – level of knowledge, skill and thinking abilities through the systems applied in this reality: would be erased i.e. permanent ending of your existence – in the period, when the time³⁴ comes (war of realms).

1.11XF. INNER DESIRES OF THE SOUL AS A SOLE PURPOSE OF IT ALL, WHICH LEADS TO THE INCREASE OF M

Imagine that you run a shop: a pack of thieves visits you regularly to steal from you, for you – to be left on the end of month with inventory barely to go by. It's what's done basically by you, if you didn't learned and applied the previous chapter – you shouldn't perceive parasites as threat, but rather³⁵ as a food – opportunity to ³³ If our Universe would be annihilated, because preparation of the whole would be insufficient i.e. as it might happen/ it's likely that those the best will be embedded into the reality of the enemy to serve his needs. It means: you would survive – even if the whole collapses.

³⁴ #4.49: see ending for more.

³² Either 'have it' in the periods of relax: in order to further the realization of the tasks given/ #2.

take. Same, when the thief from your shop is running away; dropping his equipment like torch, crowbar, balaclava – they're yours to take as to prevent him from the future immoral activity/ "jobs" (defense against parasite attacks drains them from moral energy and you gain it – if their offensive was unsuccessful). It takes time to master and watch yourself. Moral energy represents your Life. If you're allowing any parasite to rob yourself from it – you're loosing your happiness and future, basically – any perspective for further development on the spiritual level, which brings a significant change in your way of living (i.e. expansion of the shop, increase of earnings – a path to financial freedom). Learn, how to protect your level of energy, first.

In order for you to survive/ Live in this realm – you're forced to generate moral³⁶ energy for yourself. It can be done, the easy way or the hard way: through work/ job. Draining it from others, might be a solution but its dangerous and even the very best – would soon drop below, as nobody can sustain himself only from living the life of a parasite.

Most however, don't know the easy way so they're initially forced to work in their daily jobs.

This document, is about bringing this knowledge, usage of which: gives you the very best chance to change your situation – by allowing to know how to earn this energy, the easiest and the most appealing for you way possible, being itself alone – the *pleasurable*³⁷ way: through work, which isn't really a work/ 'to work, but to not work yourself and have – earn countless μ,

#1.1 and the money'.

Look at the table on next pages and pin-point where you are, at the present moment of life.

36

Life energy/ called in other terms, interpreted directly as it is.

37

However, not initially: when the deficits of your knowledge, skill and understanding are immense/ i.e. qualities

If you're reactive, work in your day job – only to get paid without the will to develop yourself fully in it, not acting purposefully after: disasters would strike, problems would arise – where their hidden goal would be to force you, for a purposeful acting and development. If you're involved in an immoral activity (see the next chapter for examples); you get the money first, are enabled to experience life at full, but the things would get sour very quickly – you'd get caught, be imprisoned etc. but if you decide to quit – repair the damage done: you would be saved (avoiding even prison, if the change would be significant – see the next chapter). However, the Karma would need to be repaid back, fully (suffering caused by you: to be experienced by you, on your person/ #1.2). If you're on a proactive moral – track, where goals are NOT set with the inner desires: nothing would be gained from it, except experience – wearing yourself all, probably being as a warning for the others to avoid this path i.e. you would get into a debt, that would need to be repaid and probably resign, being highly discouraged.

However, if you decide to take the path of the inner desires of soul – the, path-of-power/ #2 (what you truly feel, believe in – what motivates you, what is appealing to you, because you're highly motivated to perform the work, not being worn after performing it – could do it, for the whole day straight – as it doesn't drains you, but gives power etc.): when you would pass the sour years, you would become the best of the best and gain all for what you strive, in life. All of the paths, have their ups and downs, but the only worthy is proactive moral, set with the inner desires of soul – it's the best, finest, brings ALL: despite the lack of pain involved (which is merely a result of your complete lack of knowledge, preparedness – the process would learn you that, totally). Your purposeful effort is required.

You're brought to this reality with a fate (i.e. the inner desires of soul) and if you decide to realize it consciously and do the best, of you – what is expected: rewards are awaiting already/ but if choose not to or slip on the immoral track, which might occur in the process: you would be severely punished – which might even last a lifetime.

but also:

PAIN & uncertainty first,
then – when the lessons are

Emptiness,

with a low amount of moral energy (μ)
resulting from the poor work,
performed.

³⁸ I.e. convincing self, that everyone needs to work/ if not this job, so what?/ coming to a conclusion: bad but in fact – the truth, is never far away.

Done to 'pass by' or to 'have a living'.³⁹

Typical
It's like going to a

such. Today's concentration

labors.

You just do them, because you do them. No effort is felt as in any case of other job.
Love comes later, but it's first required to pass a certain another way of living – beyond it (you do, because

They don't 'wear you' in of fulfillment and power. You would one day understand it, possibly.

Taking into an account daily/ weekly or monthly payments, with an option to get the deposit earlier.

Leads to achievement in every sense of this word and brings all the desired, the best Life possible for you (with the effects dependent on your efforts to pursue and act along those drives).

Leads usually to nowhere – if no goal behind, is attached.

Consequences

Could be laid off in any moment, also due to lack of work. Uncertainty might be present.

If you decide to pursue the tasks which involve inner desires of the soul, you always have 'the steam' to continue the work given – without it: you wouldn't last much as you've been created for a special purpose. Know however, that it's not always that you do what you like or love:

it might be the most of the work, but you're destined to do what is required to be done, at the time it has to be done.

You've might not known it – to this point, but you've got certainly tasks which you love to do, without the need to be asked for and you do them fully willingly? Is it drinking vodka/ playing your anticipated game/ having sex with a beautiful woman/ find-it? If you're going along the inner desires of soul: your work is such a willing-fullness, but it's even easier (as for instance drinking might involve going to a shop 100m/ 328ft away which might be very draining). In inner desires of the soul, it doesn't costs you in the sense, that – it's appealing to you and you could do it virtually infinitely, forever. Imagine now, what could be achieved by you if you only were to follow those created for you, paths. Would be sufficient enough to earn by you a 100M mark and get the most beautiful partner and be happy/ Nirvana, #1.1 for Life, all doing what you love – not being in any way tired, of doing it: performing it from your own own will, not by must or from a necessity. It might be impossible for you now, but it is entirely possible for you as directly as it sounds – accept it, you only need to know how and have the courage, to just start the process, #2.

If you're realizing your fate – you know it, because you feel great in the process. If you were not even to be paid, by doing your job – you would still continue it, because of the pleasure, satisfaction it gives to you.

$$E = FS + \Sigma \eta(\mu/\mu_r)f_r s_r$$

It's an equation for happiness. However also for all the other searched values it brings (easily could be referred to: as the most important equation in ~~the world~~ this realm).

Energy (E) is equal to the output of strength of feelings (F) multiplied by the motivations (S) invested in the performed work, being dependent of the observers: it's a sum (Σ) of receiver feelings (f_r) multiplied by his motivations (s_r), which are caused in any of the receivers, multiplied by the efficiency factor (η) of the telepathic exchange of thoughts between you and the last, multiplied by co-efficiency (μ/μ_r) of moral compatibility between you (μ) and the receivers (μ_r).

Explanation of the equation. It might seem complicated, but it's really not.

Increase in the moral energy is associated with having the highest motivations (S): those, are only to be found by following your fate, with which – you were brought to this reality. Everyone has it, but not everybody goes after it – those are merely types of jobs, for which you've been created for: to suit them best and nobody without such inner desires of the soul, can't even match your abilities to perform on such level possible for you. It provides you the drive, because motivations aren't external, but internal – lie deep within you. When you follow them – time disappears, maximum of the moral energy can be generated.

Strength of feelings (F): is the amount of physical pain, tiredness etc. and engagement of emotions particular job involves. Those are typically feelings known as the negative side of the emotions – unpleasant, because those positive i.e. satisfaction, are felt when the moral energy is released (in time of rest, relax). The last is compressed/ generated when you invest your wits and perform the highly moral job. It's typically known, that physical work is capable to provide about fives times more moral energy than a mental work, due to amount of feelings attached.

Your amount of moral energy generated, is also dependent on the observers. If you for instance do a particular job to just show up yourself – except lower motivations which would result from it, those who watch your efforts – might spoil your amount of the moral energy generated due to emotions felt i.e. jealousy/ hatred – the last is being dependent on the strength of emotions felt (f_r) and motivation of the observer (s_r) to punish you, where the co-efficiency factor might be affected by the e.g. distance from which you've seen from (η). Either parasites or people who feel towards you e.g. antipathy/ reluctance – your work for them, might cause loss of your moral energy. The same is observed, where you're wanting to help those who don't want it/ i.e. your enemies.

Therefore, an additional effort in thinking is required to even mind for who this work/ help is to be supplied. Those who highly want, desire – welcome it and hold a sufficient moral energy level (μ_r) to appreciate – are your usual target group.

Interpretation of the equation in your daily life.

It has got many repercussions in everyday use. It's best surely to do works, who benefit you/ others directly in an anonymous way, where there are no observers. Therefore if you're building e.g. a body mass, #4.2 – it's best for you to train possibly alone, yet only if acquired – the required skill and experience to do it safely: as the increase of moral energy would be the greatest, along with your motivations and focus to perform the job (moreover, it brings many more advantages: as you're attention is entirely focused on your muscles, not being distracted by any of the talk with anyone/ by anyone etc.). Not to help those, who don't require help/ not anticipate it and aren't truly thankful for it – refuse it to any of the parasites, who only wait to drain you, #1.1. Not get with any of your jobs, in places/ force it to people – where you're not welcomed.

Highly moral, altruistic⁴² – anonymous work, typically of whose efforts invested nobody sees: is rewarded the most. Work aligned to the inner desires of soul/ fate is what's rewarding – and sharing it with others. It leads to fulfillment and all the desired, in life.

*It's a personal belief wisdom i.e. understanding of the author, that Nirvana and the knowledge on how to attain it: is the ever-searched Holy⁴³ Grail (it's not an object, as wrongly referred to – but the highest-kept information/ in essence: revealed in this book).*

If there is a reason, why you haven't yet reached the dreamed success in life – it's only the one cause: you're not following your fate.

FAILURE YOU – WHO WANTS TO MAKE IT IN LIFE/ WHEN YOU AVOID YOUR FATE.	ACHIEVER YOU – WHO ALREADY MADE IT IN LIFE/ OR WOULD MAKE IT/ #2.
Reactive	Proactive moral

⁴² Where you get no personal benefits/ do it: voluntarily from your own good will (aimed at helping others).

⁴³ Being not the singularity device/ the Ark of the Covenant/ for you it would be too – if you experience it one day.

Primary object of interest/importance

You think, live and speak about everything, but not the goal itself
(you've got no goal).

You think, Live and speak about the goal and DO actions required to achieve it, which is the most important thing to you/ its realization. In later terms: the last might be concealed, due to lack of people supporting it or the requirement for secrecy, but it's constantly on your thoughts.

You talk, but not do anything towards.

You aren't able to force yourself to think and act purposely (either due to beliefs, escaping, choosing the easy ways – which all leads to parasitism and failure). Not taking the responsibility: control over life due to lack of discipline/ other issues yet also the fear to start, is the primary reason for not following the inner desires and attaching to the surrounding reality.

~~You talk and do (or do without the talk).~~
You think and do.

Payment

You aren't able to work without a paycheck for extended amounts of time – you require payment, instantaneous.

You're able to work without any payment, because you understand that earning the really desired money – requires skill and knowledge which is to be gained only, through experience. You have the motivation for voluntary work, if it's purposeful and if possibly you can rip the benefits from it, in future.

Usually slim to none, due to level of taken risk or limited to jobs: where everyone can be hired or the low level of skill required to perform those tasks.

You have got some experience due to works performed at your projects – either successful or not, towards the directions of your dreams.

You take steps, to better your situation using the known or real (believable, realistic) for you, using the opportunities presented or acting based on an acquired already knowledge (rather short term thinking).

Mindset

You work for the best outcome in each and every project or task taken/ you handle, but if you fail – it's always accepted and of little importance, because you believe that due to the lvl of work invested: you finally would acquire required traits, experience – skill and knowledge, essential to be successful (long term thinking).

It's not required for you, to know your motives/ motivations of the soul as they're known by the Laws and activating the mechanism/ #2: would bring to you the work – where last, would be aligned to it (as being, the person to do this particular job). However, you can find them by asking the right questions or you would just know: if you invest efforts and would hold an appropriate ⁴⁴container.

For instance, one's desires⁴⁵ of the soul might be that he is interested in all which is important, but there is always attached an additional – emotional reason for the striving: it may be, to be high all the time (so, you've got the purpose and the real goal, for which the continual realization of your purpose brings you as a side effect – similarly, as to the Creation of this⁴⁶ reality/ God's intents). It might appear, that the area is wide but if you would only, take a look closer: it's not. Those are the key specific areas, which you've got only the desire to work and educate in: they only consist about 150 fundamental areas of specialization – where you're able to master each one of them on more than an expert level, in the period of your lifetime. Expecting to know, what it means to be important – as for each one of us, it's different: might be an issue to anyone, who is not holding them. Although, pattern of power arises and it includes areas, who might prove important in the future to further your own survival: topic of business (money – resources, with all the important elements involved), health, knowledge of achievement, this reality (hidden Laws, how to take advantage) etc., in short: basically the contents of this book. The drives are always there, attaining knowledge – skill and mastering those abilities is relatively easy as you're highly motivated, to continue the work: each and every single day. It doesn't cost you, your Life has got a purpose, sense and the deeper meaning – you're living a dream, in Nirvana/ #1.1 through work you're performing all-time.

⁴⁴ Intention, in thought: to unravel or reach the desired – where you've attached to it, for a specific period of time.

Whether you would choose to follow your fate, is up to you but if you won't – you would be forced to, by an increasing amount of events which would unfold in your life to force you for your own development. If you would consciously follow them: your Life would become worthy of living, pleasurable and meaningful/ for which probably everyone strives – money would follow as a result of your highly-motivated work. Prepare for that.

Due to your high motivations, which are able to be achieved for works only following fate: you would increase drastically your moral energy levels, because now – work, would become a pleasure to you (an initial 5 to 7 year mark is required, to reach freedom – usually, including the financial one: in your areas of motivations). Take a look below.

reality – where the last, involves following your fate and in essence: benefits you as you deliver, to get – all what is by you, desired.

Before, you would begin the process, #2:

- start to change you budget to save the most money possible, #2.31
- begin to optimize your life, as with the guidelines of, #2:1
- prepare to attain knowledge which you think might prove useful in the process,
- acknowledge yourself with the thought that you would start to follow your inner desires of the soul/ fate – in time, however keep your daily-job if you've got one as it would be firstly your partial job.

At least, until the programming from #0.1 sets in.

Continue reading and Apply all, which is required for you to reach 'The Process of Change' section.

Moreover, in the process⁵⁰ of soul refining – if you fail at efforts to combat your imperfections, decline to master yourself and to combat your imperfections, consistently in your defects: you're your character – standing consistently in your defects: you're risking to be degraded to... an (ugly) woman → (if you fail again) lower dimensions⁵¹/ the kingdom and hell concept. You're born to this reality with a debt which can only be repaid⁵² by following your inner motivations of the soul, in life/ your fate. Fail to do so and you're risking to be trapped at best forever in this reality or to be even destroyed, eternally – as a soul/ removed from this part of Creation, forever i.e. 'imagine nothing'.

It's serious.

When the masterful level has been attained, usually at the end of process where Nirvana/ #1.1 is present – in metaphorical sense of way: it's harder to piss than to perform the work given, as motivations are in place/ you want it, by yourself.

⁵⁰ You're following your fate/ i.e. inner motivation of the soul: when you take and Live – the process, #2.

⁵¹ Where you've might get permanently erased from the system as a program (soul)/ it means: the end of your existence – eternal.

⁵² It can't be done for you, because of the free will – you've received and have, #1.11xE.

Things for which people strive: aren't mainly physical, but spiritual in nature.

1.12. Survival of the most moral rule

Despite being glamorized: those who are the most immoral are jailed and/ or covertly killed – when their role ends. It doesn't matter how the best you are in your job – you would be caught or killed, as this reality is governed by Laws: who punish every immorality.

Moral side represents creation, development and welfare of other. The immoral stands for interference, destruction and degradation for those, who strive and do something. Clash of those philosophies, serves the purpose of knowledge increase, #1.11XE as from now on: you must i.e. learn to protect your property or work performed, as it might get stolen, destroyed or sabotaged – which reinforces thinking and pushes for additional measures, serving your further development.

In order to fully complement any sort of knowledge: it needs to be exploited both ways. Therefore, it's not worthy only to read about it – it has to be tested in a real-life environment by real people with all the dangers it might bring. Besides, pursuing the immoral philosophy creates a wide-range of top-level class experts, who know the environment and the all secrets of it, i.e. drugs/ drug-tests, drug education – thievery/ security expert, counterfeiting/ anti-counterfeiting expert etc. It plays also an additional role to test people, whether they've learned to think – to not allow themselves, to be cheated or to clear their Karma/ #1.2: in a most learning experience for them – by loss of substantial part of their money etc. Most of the people, have actually a period of the immoral life – to experience it, on their own and to learn enough, to want never come back to what they've did. Therefore, it's a tolerated part of the Creation but to the point.

Drive, to better your life is prevalent in any specie. However, it might lead to taking the wrong choices early in life and pursue of the immoral path (as it gives fast results, promises a better future and it's relatively easy to start in comparison to others, because little knowledge is involved). Take a look below – the darker color/ more plusses, the more severe is the offense, however the last might depend on varying circumstances/ all the below are wrong: immoral, punished i.e. to be forever by you avoided.

IMMORAL ACTIVITY

UNDERSTANDING OF EVIL/ IMMORALITY

Selling/production or redistribution
of drugs⁵³

Includes

addictions –
substance abuse

If you're dealing with people you're selling the drugs to – you might know why it's evil. Your product is too good and people get hooked (addicted). The very short onset of high, they give – is irrelevant to the harm and decay they cause, as they're sinking deeper through their usage – yes, asked and required by them but it generally: impoverishes⁵⁴ their lives.

MORAL false justifications: you're only selling it to those, who want and pay for it. You're not selling to under age. If somebody doesn't wants to take – he won't, so it's his fault.

It extends to pharmaceuticals which resemble traits of the above/ some of which are purposefully designed, i.e. released – to hook people: in order to generate the highest sales.

⁵⁴

Always ask: whether you would like to be stolen goods from – for which you've worked? Yes, the state might do this but if you're living in it – you must to accept and comply with the rules established, if they only don't interfere with the Moral Laws (rare occurrence)⁵⁵. Taking somebody's possession is something worth condemnation (if it hadn't been given to you or attained in a moral way – it's forbidden).

Stealing/ being a crook +++ / ++

Cheating also other people (so they give you cash) is the same as stealing, but the difference is that you're not forcing anyone to give you what you want – they do it, from their own will or greed (it's 'less' wrong as you have to develop more abilities from the perspective of plan/ #1.11xE). However, it's the same crime but with indirect approach – all would be lost, either way. It's dangerous to take, even for the most powerful.

54

It might be not so visible in the case of lighter drugs i.e. marijuana, hashish but the harm is on the varied level, #2.2.

55

You've got always a choice to leave and move yourself to another country, which hasn't got any taxes at all or they're on a much lower level.

You must respect the laws and taxes of state you're currently in or living.

Why? If somebody would get into your home: would you accept or tolerate his unbearable behavior? The same, if somebody would talk badly about your closest ones, without no proof. It's essential to follow it, because you might get injured or killed, as people with different mentality/ culture would protect what's theirs. If you're not able to comply: avoid to get to somebody's home (home country)⁵⁶ where moral rules are the key to attitude and mutual respect for each other (everywhere).

Breaking the human laws/ not paying taxes ++

It might not essentially be punished by the moral/ Karmatic Laws itself, but it's required to always follow and comply additionally to the rules of somebody's home/ neighborhood/ state when only in it, #3.98C.

When a penis enters – vagina: you're poisoned by the aura of perpetrator on the spiritual level and it's an immoral activity, if you were n't attached with self. Sex is a sacred act and it shouldn't be sold, for any price/ of any reason.

Prostitution/
++

It applies to women: who are in the set-by-humans act of no-separation so the male could invest his own efforts into keeping the household by his work – to provide, for the family. If it's broken, it's worth condemnation – for the both⁵⁷ parties, who perpetrated the act and brings Karma.

Beating/
extortion +++

“Emotions which you cause upon others, would return to you – in time, #1.2.” (Karma)

Gambling +++

You're taking somebody's money i.e. in a poker game – you're wasting your resources because those are the games: which don't develop you or anyone else, beyond you. It leads to development of negative traits and the potential for immorality is high, because you're not always winning, which leads to a downward-point spiral/ besides, the house always wins. In gambling: you want something – for nothing and it's wrong.

If you put a coin for fun to a robber machine, it's no crime – you would lose it, either way; yet it shows, in some sense – your lack of intelligence. It becomes although immoral, when it's more than a penny/ stay away, all-time.

Avoid to ever bet/ with anybody.

Nobody⁵⁹ is gaining from your work and you're not gaining from it too anything real. You're not developing your abilities and knowledge, because everyone can buy cheaper and sell at higher prices. If you're interested in the recipe: it's ruled by fear and it's rigged. Everything else is just, to keep the illusion alive.

Speculative stock/ forex 58

play
++(+)

An immoral activity, is always an immoral activity – it's without any matter, that you've cracked the code for a robber/ slot

58
Currency, goods market.

59
You'd might be led to believe you're increasing value of the company/ promoting products etc., etc...
/ They would do, without you.

machine, to always know when to bet. It involves other people's money loss and would remain an immoral activity – like any. However, if you're investing in a stock market to takeover companies for the purpose of modernizing them, enhancing their products etc. – it's not considered immoral anymore, because of the intentions and the effects of actions which it would cause upon others.

Victims of the immoral activity or activities – aren't random: they've got too their own stakes in it, yet might pose as a prey/ i.e. Karma is paid back, development of their thinking ensues – where they lack it or is proving to them, if they haven't learned: that in life you've got nothing for free⁶⁰ (as an opportunity for shams and crooks), etc.

/ The problem with any of those activities, is that the consumer: receiving end of it, can charge you with Karma for them, even if his paid for it voluntarily from his own will and it's solely his fault, responsibility for its use – as it's all a product, either service of somebody's else enterprise⁶¹/ activity (e.g. a person might charge with pain for the collapse of his marriage/ family: the whore, who allowed⁶² himself to be fucked for money, or even without any).

This realm, is highly balanced because if it wouldn't be – entities populating it, wouldn't want to live/ continue the Creation/ #1.11XE. Therefore, each immoral activity – similarly as each moral activity: brings an equal amount of harm and good, in the end (which resembles, something like a martingale system –

60
Exempting, what had been given or received/ when born.

61
It's the huge risk you're taking by perpetuating any of those acts/ it's, the secret to understanding Karma/ #1.2.

62 If immorality followed, i.e. concealment of engagement/ marriage ring, supplied false information, etc.

where doubling always after every loss: wins you eventually and you're +1 to have).
Money derived, from the immoral enterprises/ activities: is taxed – on the spiritual level with 50% value. It means, that half of the money you've earned through them: is, lost – forever. You've got no influence whatsoever – over it, however you can consciously – spend them ⁶³ on somebody/ certain cause or just to give away/ however: you get nothing from it (no positive Karma/ #1.2). Any activity which doesn't generates moral energy – in the long term, is immoral.

There is always a moral way out, to any of the situation: independent how worse or hopeless – not only limited to being a victim/ perpetrator of the immoral, but also to any situation – you're in or could ever be.
If it isn't – it's created by the Laws and your sole task is only to find it (see next pages).

⁶³ Which might explain your losses of property i.e. phone or broken items. It's required to give away 50% of the money earned such way, to just clear them/ you get no benefits from it, as opposed to the morally earned money. It can be said: you're going obviously against your self-interest – if you pursue the immoral/ i.e. any, of it.

If you're involved in the immoral activities – you're becoming like a chicken in the flock for the Creator: it eats his own eggs, attacks and kills other chickens, not laying good eggs anymore – so, it's time to remove it from the herd, by killing it or jailing (if you're reading this words and are involved in such ⁶⁴ enterprise or jobs, independent of whether they're a legal-based company/ part of it or a neighbor-pack – it might be just and precisely now, the last warning for you: to leave the immoral path, fulfill the damage done/ at least partially and to start a new life with a clean sheet of paper).
If not done – you've might loose it – your life, in a direct sense. If you've got any second-thoughts: leave the immoral activities for others/ watch on yourself only, as you're being accounted separately.

⁶⁴ Ask your conscience/ yourself: whether it's moral for you to do the things you do or not and you would know the answer, straight away// you're embedded with a 'hotline' to forever ask, before taking any action towards.

You've got the last chance, to leave the immoral – just to stop, take what's yours and leave.

If you won't: you would be persecuted and face up jail/ or to be killed (by the same Laws working through people). If your crimes would cease now – you would be saved, by the Laws and you won't gain for yourself more Karma/ #1.2: for the sins to be done. It's not told, that you won't face a jail sentence – you would need to repay it back, all of it: but you'd might be probably saved/ rescued from wasting your time there, if you would act now.

Think about it right now as it's better to leave it now, when you've got the chance: you would be required to fix the damage, but help would come.

Be yourself and do it, for your best self-interest.

For instance: you would want to quit the immoral activity because you feel, that if from any reason – it's not truly for you, then let it be – but in order to do it you would require for instance 50,000/ to do as such. Laws would help, to leave it but you might not receive the check from an unknown source: however, be supported in other meaningful way. You accept that you would do all in your power and even use that money to cover all the harm, in an all-the-possible way – just to escape the immoral activity/ activities and do something purposeful in your life: never to return, to it. Help would come, it would be suited to your needs and would be brought in a perfect moment for it. For instance after a month time or more, you've might log into your bank account and there would be a money transfer for 43,723/ to have over 46 375 (you didn't told about it – to anyone, only thought it as such in your mind – but it would be there, confirmed to be experienced). It would save you, as you would be rescued to get from it, with face – now your turn would be to undue the damage done to your possibilities and it's a requirement. If you would continue or refuse to change your mind in this time: you're likely to be dead – it's serious and it's the best in a lifetime decision to stick with it (the Laws won't give you, until your intentions would be true!). You're likely to get more help after the initial one – i.e. 16,000+ additional might be a result of it, as in the spoken instance.

It has been confirmed. You might get an additional funds: they too would need to be used on self and to repay the harm⁶⁵ caused. This way, you're clearing your path for the brighter and best future and you succumb to it, by your heart/ without⁶⁶ it, it's impossible.

⁶⁵ It took exactly what was above the 50,000 mark. All those money were clear, not-charged with anything for just leaving the immoral/ to be used freely: they've had more value than all which was earned before.

⁶⁶ If only engaged/ or was recently – in any immoral, but didn't repaid the harm/ didn't cleared, the Karma – #1.2.

Remain calm.

Begin to form in your thoughts an idea to escape from the old/immoral activities (be with it on the level of your intent/keep it for at least a month period i.e. that you want to leave this sh*t behind, permanently⁶⁷). Continue as nothing had happened, tell nobody about it.

Ideas would be brought to you and follow them, immediately.

It would save you and your life/ it will be the best decision of your lifetime, guaranteed.

// You can leave, just NOW despite ALL your beliefs and precognition – if you still live.

// It has to be a split-second 'now' decision as later might be too late & it won't be possible.

Then, do: what's necessary/ #2.

Immoral activities are never any solution to your problems, as they're a "temporary fix"⁶⁸ – understand it, know it/ forever. They never solve the cause, as it's a house of cards built on sand – it would collapse, under itself and all what you've built for so long: would be gone, independent of its magnificence – which is probably the worst consciousness (and in this realm: any immoral activity is punished).

If you so desperately require cash: dress yourself in a dark clothes, buy some very cheap calendars and go after homes: tell, ~~you're a chimney-sweep (as of today)~~ and give them to people. They would possibly pay you money, as you're exploiting the desire for payback/ reciprocity. If not, get for free some beautiful flowers growing somewhere wild or buy them at a wholesale at no price and go to an airport or a center of the town – in any place, where there are people: give one to each of them separately, and have a some sort of box where they could put money in, tell – you're collecting cash to help some person⁶⁹ (flowers are for free, but if they're willing to support the cause – let it be so). You can collect in an hour more, than in a typical day-job if you're good⁷⁰ at it/ or best, #4.41 i.e. last idea from the list – the easiest, the most profitable: the most likely to work, effectively.

If the debts involve substantial amount of money: get to an agreement with the benefactors. It's sure, you can work something out – even, if you've failed: admit it, but – it's nothing to be gained by killing you and that you would invest your efforts, to repay⁷¹ what you've taken – it's a promise. Be sincere and mean it deeply: as body sends subconscious signals which you won't be able to cover and those are always to be easily to be spotted by most of the people. It's a moral solution, to an immoral problem/ taking any money: you don't have – on debt, or either way.

⁶⁹ Yourself/ in need – if somebody asks, tell the truth/ he would understand and smile, probably congratulate the idea. You don't need to lie, there is never a need for it.

⁷⁰ If you're in a desperate need – you would go to a desperate measures: so it's always better to do it, only in the moral way – conquering your fears, which you've might have and develop yourself this way/ selling what you have already, might prove a way out. Thinking is required, before you would engage in any situation, so tell yourself that from now on: you would do everything preceded by deep thinking and right the first time, always & forever.

⁶⁸ It's a metaphor – it is in reality: a bullet shot in your knee/ by yourself.
Never to get back to it, knowing: it would all resolve, align/ to stay: forever, at the moral track/ go straight, for life.

⁷¹ Use your owned property as something which could be taken instantaneously by them/ banning, only taking your tools for development, as it would prove your intents and help to secure such an agreement.

You always want to improve your position as best as you can, but it only needs to be done in a moral way/ boundaries.

You're forced to think – all the time. Immorality doesn't end here/ i.e. it affects you.

If you're selling your home to a known criminal and he derives the money from an immoral enterprise/ where he might be even willing to pay extra⁷² so the home would be kept for him, by you. By making this sale: a crisis would happen in your life up to decades – after the successful transaction (usually it takes up to the next 15-25 years to clear itself). It would mean for you:

losing 50% of your property/ the money value, which has been derived from the sale in past (i.e. through⁷³ flood, fire etc. – which might possibly look as a random event).

You're required to ask for proofs where those money come from and to verify sources of the documents provided in such sales and it can be dealt, easily – by telling, that you want to sell it for someone, who would be suitable for it and you don't sell to everyone because you care about the welfare of others.

⁷² Another clue.

⁷³ Interestingly enough: influenced by those events people with you, have some sort of insurance policies or are refunded in some other way.

Refuse any immoral/ ill-gotten money or to rip any spoils derived by them.

If somebody's profession for instance is a thief and you know or suspect⁷⁴ it: you can't accept any of them. If unsure – ask for a proof of his earnings, by asking directly and if required further: paper trail of it – be open about your suspicions – you would know. You're not allowed to drink with him vodka, he has bought – even, if it's his birthday/ you can however drink with him your vodka – the one brought by you (if the last, is moral to you).

If received a gift from such person, involved in the immoral activity – return it to him and thanks politely. If asked, why not – tell you can't accept gifts bought for immoral money, say sorry and be open about it. If it's impossible, to return – donate it to charity or pass to someone unknown, anonymously/ leave somewhere to be picked where somebody might be in need. If he has a favor towards you: ask him, to do something for you.

It's punished by the Laws, severely. Even if it's the best and the most-expensive luxury vodka – strict-top of the shelf and you've wanted⁷⁵ to drink alcohol for the last two weeks, straight: refuse. Usually, the last mechanism of want/ desire is involved to activate your inner wants and to test you as a thoughtful person – from those choices: your fate would be ruled by (it would be later about it).

⁷⁴ As the clues are there: he spends the money too lightly or lavishly/ as if they literally wouldn't his.

You're required to think, all the way through/ all-time.

Know, that any event in this reality works for your good. Someone are just more evil initially, than others and might realize goals⁷⁶ – not known for you at the time.

Moreover, you're subjected in this reality to the tests – fail them and suffer, but pass them and your fate would be of the best possible. It's probably the most important component, which would allow you to win all the desired but you're in a need: to change yourself first – by adapting, which is probably the hardest part/ to resist the temptations.

You're passing them, by changing and transforming your in-born nature.

1. First person enters the room, spots the money on a table. In the moment, when he looks at the cash: a desire to have them – is awakened. He looks around, whether somebody is there – takes the money and runs – fast.

⁷⁶ If you still don't get it: someone might follow the ill-gotten money and force you to return them, as they were e.g. his investment/ to be confirmed, by the court order with instantaneous realization as he was robbed by the crook (being extended to e.g. donations, prizes or gifts which were already spent, used or sold etc. to be paid back by you – with the money you haven't got). The same applies: to buying stolen items – they would likely break, be lost or have to be returned/ you're forbidden to accept anything bought by the immoral money – anything. just refuse.

Your path to success would be blocked by the Laws if you won't learn those lessons fast/ you won't be allowed to get the prizes in the process/ #2: as your morality would be too low (to believe in them).
You would lose the unearned/ your whole life would be on the hold.

2. Second person enters the room, spots the money on a table. In the moment – also a desire to have them is awakened, he's ready to take but he suddenly thinks: "maybe I'm on a camera, maybe somebody watches?", "I want this money so badly, but I don't want to be caught" and after – he leaves the room, without them.
3. Third person enters the room, spots the money – a desire to have is awakened, he takes them, but when he leaves, he thoughts: "They're not mine (money). What I'm doing? I can't do as such". He puts them back on the table and goes out.
4. Fourth person is so-called, an honest person. He enters the room, spots the money, sees – that nobody is inside and thoughts: "They don't belong to me. Somebody forgot to hide them". Puts them to wardrobe and writes a note, that they're in there – leaving it on a table, and then leaves.

Nature has only transformed in a third person – he passed the test, because he overcome his desire to have those money.

Fourth person, already have passed this test in the past and is much higher in the moral development: which is essential to advance/ to have or even be allowed to have more. This story grabs the essence. Think how many times you've took an unfair/ immoral advantage over someone, by taking the money he has left or goods which were not yours (sum or value of them, doesn't matters): your morality has been tested and you've probably failed miserably – if you've only didn't followed the right, moral choices (have you've ever wondered, how many times somebody took an advantage of you?). More, of the situations where you would be tested, later – might involve the below/ crime pays none and it's severely punished by the universal Laws – avoid to ever get into any.

At the checkout – having, the last 100 in your life: being supposed to pay 40 for 12 beers which are in the box – you would be charged only for 6 as the cashier didn't found it's a double-pack. You're role is to correct the mistake and pay for what you take. 20 would play a major role in your conscience. It's the next occurrence instead of the 5 ordered. You've ordered and no means that it's over 108: You've time – either you've decision to be spiritual value otherwise). Or

It's not your role because payment is required because nobody extended by taking advantage of

Knowledge, Illumination and The Path of The Light Worker

Fail at them and forget about ever⁷⁸ changing your life, anyway again.

Take in life always and only: the most moral choices possible.

This way: you're able to control your destiny.

Any resource ever, isn't worth the Life/ #2.

⁷⁸ Morality has to progress/ in order for you to be able to – your morality: to be repeated, twice due to its importance. You would lose all – if you won't, i.e. change your in-born nature, to take.

APPLY ALL – TO BE APPLIED

Be always conscious of those hidden-mechanisms and tests, of your moral development – to pass them, each time successfully.

1.14. MORAL DUTIES AND STANCE TO FOLLOW

If you want to become a moral person: you're required to act in certain situations.

Taking moral choices is hard, because it's associated with breaking of the invisible field resistance. Moral choices are always associated with thinking/ the highest intellectual resistance: taking the way uphill – against all odds.

Moral behavior is characterized by only two properties: it never harms anyone and it's never required to correct it or fix. It also brings an increase in the moral energy, #1.1 and possibly generates Karma, #1.2: which you would willingly accept. For instance, if you were attacked by a parasite who wanted to provoke an emotional response – your drain and you've got a true desire to punch him in the face/ severely beat – you're not allowed to do that, because it's an immoral response/ as your life isn't threatened. Keep calm, restrain your nature – because if you do so: your behavior won't be moral as you would break those rules – you would harm him and this action would be required to be corrected as i.e. jail sentence, refund etc. awaits by doing so. Instead, a more moral solution – as an inverse, of the natural reaction (which is an emotional response): would be to talk and explain the issue or just to let go/ ignore and leave – saving your time. The first might bring you an increase in moral energy: if you've sensed the intention on drain and caused a parasite to reply in an emotional manner, by loss of his energy or you've done the things required to defend yourself – second, is probably better – if no direct threat is involved because you show, you don't care and you're additionally saving energy to work on your goals, #2. It might be neutral to the moral energy – you're not loosing it to him, yet not gaining also. It's the choice to take, if the fight isn't worthy of it/ the last, should be dealt quickly and effectively: to save you most of the time, no further explaining – just few words and it ends.

Moreover, it leads to taking such choices in life – in larger areas of your life.

You're always required to think and to view the bigger picture.

Firstly, you must learn to protect yourself – so for instance if a birthday party in a car packed with five people: when the driver went out to tank the gas, left the keys inside and went to the station to pay – your friend took his car, closed the doors and drunk driven four of you on a crazy ride, breaking the doors and regulations i.e. double line crossing, speeding etc., a truck driver closely didn't hit you in the back and he dumped the car in a ditch, on an express road – escaping, with three of your friend and you were one to stay – the police arrived, you didn't told what's happened because you were drunk but the truck driver did – telling you were not the driver, and you've been released after alcohol tests on a police station... You're supposed, to act always for your own good, first. Therefore, if you were called as a witness days later: you're rightly to tell the truth, but not all of it as to a) protect self first, [& then] b) didn't harm anyone or didn't* require to correct this action perpetrated – you tell, that you only know the people who were in the car, yet not telling who has drunk-driver/ partially, because you know that if you were to put other testimony that you don't remember the whole day in no way – as your friends might require to (which is completely unbelievable and you would harm yourself, if the case was to enter the court and not to be solved by the police itself), although you know that by doing it – not even saying who perpetrated the act which was pressed, would cross the line and you've lost your neighbor friends, forever and be harassed by everyone (which might be like a hard choice to take, but remember – you're not harming anyone, including self) and besides: tapes, truck witness – people on the station, cameras in the city – evidence is plentiful and it would be easily to disproof – furthermore, your friend – who has driven, has got already two suspended sentences from various paragraphs – he goes to jail, immediately and they would prove it to him. You're required to put testimony: who is best for you – first & only at the base, but cares about everyone around – you're not sure, who has driven, because you've drink alcohol and only know with who you were that day/ all. It's associated with being bullied, called as an informant – but it's the right, hard yet moral choice to be taken. Everyone is responsible for his actions.

Take in life always and only: the most moral choices, possible.

It's required to know, that you're only subjected to see and interpret the events from your own perspective i.e. relation – as you're in this game, alone. For instance, if you're with a friend and he has stolen on your eyes a nectarine – the best, the hugest, the most tasty – you would eat with eyes, as you've been waiting to eat it for three months and which you've ordered but it was not available and didn't showed in the package, having no money to buy it: you're not supposed to act, because it hasn't been stolen from you/ you were not affected by this action – as it only relates to you. You can't accept the spoils of it, however – #1.12. Although, it might allow you to gain consciousness to not let this person to your house, watch⁷⁹ on being e.g. drunk or to be, in the vicinity of him.

Understand, that you're not subjected to 'clear all of the evilness' in this world, but only the one which caused your harm or affected you in any *significant*⁸⁰ way – it's, when the line is crossed and you're obliged to act, but also: in a smart and thoughtful – effective way.

Another instance, might appear when your friends are beating somebody in the center of a neighborhood i.e. blocks of flats, where windows are everywhere. Again, this action isn't involving you directly, but it affects you because somebody might call the police and the law in your country is such, that if you passively observing an immoral act – you're liable, as you were the perpetrator so – it's your duty, to stop them and tell to move somewhere else/ possibly providing the reason: 'not here/ people are watching'. However, it's best for you to stop in the mid-term⁸¹ when you would move i.e. to 'I don't want to see it' respond-type and you can help by saying loud in a commanding tone, with ⁷⁹ Your possessions/ you have with you.

⁸⁰ In relation to your goal, taken in the process/ #2: it includes parallel developments.

smile on your face: 'ESCAPE!' followed by 'Oh, there would be a slaughterhouse', 'Oh, there would be a slaughterhouse' as to give the clue/ instructions to the person attacked. If he does as such, it's good for him, either way – he would be caught anyway if the Karma/ #1.2 hangs on him.

You can help those victims, if you want to or your goals involve it, #2 but this help must be concealed or hidden – best anonymous/ performed in a clever way.

In instance, where you've cooked a pack of chickpeas and had a poisoning, #3.29L because the product has been contaminated by similarly looking yellow GM-beans in it: you're supposed/ obliged to act – firstly, to let know the producer he has got a problem as he might not be conscious of it and secondly – to get a refund of the batch, possibly gain an extra product for the 'sorry'-type of thing.

You're required only, to choose those ideas or actions who are benefiting you and working on your cause – bring towards your goal⁸² or goals/ #2. It's all about effectiveness of the undertakings – understand it. It requires you to think.

You're required to correct immoral/ evil behavior which is affecting you. Know, it's usually more – you can think of/ responsibility-type-of⁸³ issue.

⁸¹ From the very same reason, as in the beginning – as you're liable in the terms of human laws: if you passively watch without any help – in case if something would happen i.e. they might kill him or permanently disable etc./ you don't want to see it: stay away (why? because it might affect your goals/ #2: i.e. searching for the perpetrators, witnesses, you've might also be charged – it's problematic to you, etc.)

You're required to play cleverly for your self-interest.

Everyone must protect himself and you're not like everyone, at least not anymore – if his, not doing it: it's his problem, he must too start to learn to think by himself as you've did.

If you allow yourself to be disrespected/ treated badly or give others the possibility to cause you harm/ influence your actions: others would follow with similar type of treatment.

You must always use the best tools available for the job, because it's with no sense not to.

It's required for your good, self-interest, well-being and peace of mind and if you won't do so: you'd be severely punished by the Moral Laws.

Forever, to do the work/ you're required: to do it, in the most effective and best manner – it's a necessity. You're therefore forced to think it all, before you would engage in any type of it. For instance, if you want to dig a large hole in the ground to make a fish pond in your back yard – you've got a choice to a) do it, with a shovel by yourself which would take you at least 200 hours of intensive work labor – whereas: you live in an area where other more cost-efficient solutions/ tools are available and it's more beneficiary to use them, as they would save your time, work and labor – besides, they're the best solution to the problem, b) you should pay the specified amount for someone do it, with a mechanical digger. The catch is, that if you don't have the money:

It's all the moral field is about and ALL the Laws in the Universe.

83

Where: you place too much responsibility and give power over events, to anyone.

you either barter, but calculations state – that you're able to earn couple times⁸⁴ more, than by digging it yourself so – it's not the most effective use of your time and it's required from you to abandon the project or get the resources/ you might also want to find others who might be interested in it like i.e. your family, brother etc. and who do have money and would possibly provide them/ cover the project.

You would be severely punished by using the tools which are not the most effective, dependent on the impact of your actions/ the 'strong but stupid' people approach. It applies to all the choices and thinking always is essential (before taking, either entering any action).

Weight your options – make always only the best/ the most effective selections.

In this time.

Moral field is forever about the right choices for you – the last involves preceded thinking before taking any action. It's not about, being the easy selection of the immoral actions, but about taking the right ones for you – usually, the hard choices i.e. telling the truth, not harming anyone, serving in a clever way: all of those – which serve you, the best. If you don't do so – you're severely punished by taking any other decisions.

The reason why disasters in your life strike – always the worst occurrences happen: it's because –you lack preparation. You haven't thought through and prepared/ secured for all the options and possibilities which might lead to your downfall: even higher loss of your property – if they wouldn't struck. They're there, to either show you the lack in your thinking: which leads to unsecured projects, works and to reinforce the change – of your defects in planning in each and every instance – even to the last, smallest detail.

For instance: if you've build a home, secured every detail of it – it's fully safe, it's hurricane-proof and it's just a diamond in the crown. Yes, it might be – but you've again: didn't thought⁸⁵ it to the end, as you've built it, in an area where flood is possible and it would be taken by the water in the next event. The same, applies also: when securing food, water and all the other requirements to live – including knowledge, for the times when the system would collapse.

It would be exploited to the very last drop. It's only for your good, so you'd be prepared next time fully and won't do the same mistake again, and it's usually achieved through the destruction of your work or a major accident/ as it imprints an everlasting memory – something, which can't be ignored. It also reinforces your morality, to show you where you truly are: how you lack preparedness and how hollow is your thinking.

Forever prepare totally on any occurrence and secure every last possible smallest issue
OR face the risk of permanent loss, which would happen because of it.

/ Prepare forever such, like you'd prepare for the End of the World/ take it very⁸⁶ seriously.

It applies to every each work, project or undertaking.

⁸⁵ You've focused on one particular area, ignored the other.

⁸⁶ Disasters in your life would likely cease/ confirmed.

Total preparation to any circumstances causes, that those catastrophic events might be not brought to your reality, due to lack of need.

Everything in this reality has a reason and you're required to seek for the last, always and forever to find the truth. You're probably also acting this way: saying an official reason why, but hide deep – the real motivations and drive. The same way of acting is prevalent and the true ability, is to see beyond those smoking mirrors and always think, independently of who or what is involved.

Cigarettes are firstly marked as harmful/ if somebody haven't found it yet, then – when the time passes, producers are forced to put a clear sign: 'SMOKING KILLS' on every package of them and even in a certain countries – place photos, of the damage caused through the usage of this product. Then, the public ban passes for smoking in public, closed places (before it – lots of books/ tools might be inspired to disdain people from the drug: allowing them to throw it once and forever). The era ends, when GM-tobacco is introduced and cigarettes become deliberately⁸⁷ poisoned, as they burn/ roast the tongue yet the side-brands⁸⁸ are also influenced through the introduction of additional poisons which might not cause such an effect/ #2.2. All done, in a very extensive time delay, so you have time – if you've gave in: you won't know the real reason behind – i.e. hidden agenda, if didn't seen it all the way through.

with respect.
From now on.

Understanding, that by acting moral – i.e. taking the right choices for self: you're able only to cause for yourself positive Karma/ such, which you're – willing to accept, is essential.
It's all brought to morality, in relation to others.

The only sure law in this reality, is causality.

Karma⁹² is received always only by the attacker – not, the defender: which implies that it's forever your moral duty to fight yourself. Moral act of defense involves first avoiding any It forbids you to provoke – as it's an attack or to respond with aggression to any verbal or false-physical attacks/ particularly be watchful for the game – played by many parasites, #1.1: which sole purpose is to cause you, to become an aggressor through your way of responses, to their many baits.

⁹²

If you do evil: it would come back to you, in time.

Here's the secret: if you've been however attacked by e.g. a thug – avoid to perceive him as a sole individual, but see him rather as a representative of the group intellect – of all the thugs to who he belongs, because it would allow you to use a broader variety of defense. Moreover, know that Laws in this reality are so designed, that you're always able to win the given confrontation/ as it wouldn't be served to you, as a test, #1.11xE and you're always assisted as a defender:

- you must only look around what has become available to you and immediately make a use of it/ as Moral Laws always bring to your disposal everything that you need – to win the defense fight; it's forbidden for you – to be scared, because you're backed by the invisible – if only you were attacked: you've got always the tools in your area, but you must actively seek for those handouts/ find them and use – immediately,

- if you've put by the aggressor to a desperate situation – seek for an exit which has been specially prepared for you; you've got a single, hidden exit out of the situation and you must seek to find it and use, instantaneously (miracles, might happen – confirmed).

What's more, whatsoever – if you would put the fault on the right person which caused you the damage: your pain, is cut by half. If you however fail to do so, by putting the blame on the wrong person/ who didn't perpetrated the act: your pain would double, in its intensity. Ignore the human laws, you've did the

in the fight for your life) / #2.59.
No Karma would be ever received, by any *moral*⁴ act of defense.

If you've however failed to defend yourself – you can still accomplish a moral victory (win). You're required to continue the moral way of acting, to the very end and hold on to your right decisions and ideals. Moral punishing effects of the Laws: would transform the initial loss – into your long term, victory (enemy would understand his mistake/ he would be attacked by someone stronger or struck by something – in a time delay: making you, a winner – in the very end).

If you've lost: keep the fight, to the very end – holding to your ideals, refusing to comply deep and act only in a moral manner – all the time.

View it this way: if you're today seeing somebody weaker or clumsier than you⁵ – take an advantage of him, or use/ force in any way e.g. in a queue – won't be surprised: if you would be used or forced in such way, by someone stronger than you – in the time, to come.

If you were not attacked at a given, current moment – i.e. now: abandon forever, all the hatred and any of the retaliation ideas – perpetrators would be caught by the Universal justice⁶ – Karma, anyway. If you won't let go: you'd be the attacker and earn Karma, i.e. pain for yourself/ it would likely block your progress to success/ #2: until repaid.

Imagine now, that you're 68 years old: you've got a daughter and a son – which you've wanted send to college – you've got a mortgage for which you have to pay the next month, your wife's health isn't particularly the best and you.. you've got just a question: how do you gonna make it – how you gonna make it happen/ where you've put all your savings including retirement fund money for the 7-15% a year profit per month and you've lost it ALL as the investment happened to be a Ponzi scheme⁹⁷ (which usually most of those funds become, when a series of deals goes wrong or face a prolonged loosing streak)⁹⁸. Imagine now, that you're the only leading manager of this hundred-million hedge fund who 'done' more than 1,500 people who trusted you. Break. Imagine the pain involved (Karma): where you've lost ALL your money – you've got – your retirement funds, savings and all what – you've had, in a split of second due to your decision, but lost by someone who betrayed you either knowingly or not (viewed –

⁹⁵ It doesn't matter who he is, in relation to who: he's a living person populating this Universe – it's enough.

⁹⁶ You've sent already Karma to them i.e. the feelings they've caused to you, by doing you Evil – they would be returned to them, in time (use your time effectively on your goals/ #2). It applies to all, any Evil i.e. wrongdoing upon you – it's 100% absolutely guaranteed as it's a Karmatic Law/ the one: serving justice in this realm.

⁹⁷ You're being paid from the other people's money, as no profit is being made – costs mount and somebody spends your money on charities, luxury cars, homes, vacations etc. All is lost, where there are no new investors that finance the scheme (which often happens: when the market is low/ economy is in ruins as no cheap credit is given – that means no work and everybody wants to get their money back, immediately).

⁹⁸ Your intelligence isn't questioned, because most of the people put 100% of their money eventually – if one investment pays a good return, even if only on the paper: as they don't check/ verify it or the last, isn't sufficient (up to a 5-15% and not all your money is ever allowed to enter such deals, so if you lose one egg – it isn't a cataclysmic event). Those who won, in those Ponzi schemes and left: are often forced by court to return their profit/ beware.

from the perspective of someone: who has the ability to send you an emotional package – Karma, because you've took his money and lost it, not fulfilling the promise)// if you were the person responsible for the damage due to immoral activity which became such: all those feelings would be experienced by you back – in time/ i.e. your progress blocked: just imagine what would enter your life. Karma is also applied to people, who are a part of the scam/ immoral activity, #1.12 (loss of property, home etc. – ill-gotten money, #1.2 as there are clues or the truth would be evident in time, e.g. too high salary for such a job, lavish spending etc.).

Think, before you engage into any sort of work or take any action – moral or not: would you willingly accept Karma which might be a result, of it? If you would not bet your life for the stake of your absolute certainty that the person pointed – was really the perpetrator: avoid to ever charge Karma/ it's death-serious.

If you're living the truth/ act in a moral manner all the time – taking, the right choices for you: there is nothing, to be in worry of and you're able to gain only positive Karma for your actions preceded by thinking.

Trivia

Karma can be served as a stack (combination of few emotions, cleared at one event).

It extends to all the living creatures, who have a soul i.e. cats, dogs etc.

If you don't hold any Karma for i.e. physical pain – the last, caused by others e.g. through beating: won't hurt⁹⁹ at all.

If the immoral act is perpetrated by more than a one person – its split over all of the perpetrators involved: accordingly to the fault, they've caused.

Most of people, who are born to this reality disabled/ morbidly-ill, actually resemble some sort of Karma which they were unable to repay in their previous life.

Karma is usually cleared within your life – either the good or bad, but if it's not possible: it's served in another (transference of positive Karma – brings an opportunity to control your destiny and future).

After each feeling – an anti-feeling is experienced, e.g. if you've felt a strong emotion of love: an anti-emotion would be felt of the same value, hatred – afterwards/ so independent of what you feel – you would always feel the same as others (of status, prestige etc.).

You're required to unload it, in a moral manner.

Time delay is primarily to don't take away your free will¹⁰⁰ and to test: whether you learn fast enough on your bad choices, in order to assess your value (lack of this knowledge/ about Karma doesn't means – you're exempted). Justice is kept.

It's said 'merely' across the whole book as for instance: if you've got your head dissected/ slit up: it hurts, i.e. burns when you touch it – but it's your fault now.

100 As if you would be punished instantaneously – you won't do the immoral deeds.

Upload this document now on a various sharing sites, p2p networks, publishing it everywhere – so everyone can get it.

This way, you're able to generate a positive Karma for yourself, because somebody would be very thankful/ appreciative, that you've allowed to let them know/ helped – earning such emotion/ Karma for self (now, it would be caused in you – in your future, e.g. by someone giving you something valuable to you).

This way, and by doing many others: you're able to control you fate.

You can't escape Karma i.e. either good or bad – willingly to be accepted or not to be willingly accepted: you can only delay it. It's absolutely guaranteed if not in this current lifetime – it's repaid by you, in another/ i.e. which might explain your suffering¹⁰¹ 'without a reason' (accidents, etc.).

101 It's forbidden however to continue watch on it by you, but instead focus on ceasing any immoral activities which might generate such unwilling Karma for you, NOW.

LEARN IT NOW – AT THIS MOMENT AND DO IT BETTER FAST,
FOR YOUR OWN WELL-BEING.

All those events which happen today in your life – are the result of your Karma, from the past. Nobody connects it, know it.

Apply morality/ #1.1.

1.3. LIGHT AND SATAN AS THE INNER VOICES – IN YOU

You're subjected to voices: who are your advisers – at least, until you learn to think by yourself. They know all your thoughts, know you 'from A to Z plus Z+'.

LIGHT

By listening to this voice: you would only get the best what is for you, possible.

SATAN

If you would listen¹⁰² to this voice only and allow it to enter your reality: the worst would happen.

¹⁰² By choosing, to realize the actions suggested or convinced to.

Is or might be less pervasive in choosing actions mentioned, but the lasts depends on the perspective and current circumstances.

Choices like: learn, do the job given, go there – do that (might be boring, but you know its right and those should be done).

Choices like (as opposed to the left side): [or] go to a party now[!], ignore this job – nobody would catch you, play the game, avoid to do anything – nobody is watching – get yourself time/ life on pleasure – go fuck some chicks – spent more time playing as life is short and you need to live it maximally.

Associated with: achievement, fulfillment and success in life/ including the financial one.

In the end: leads to Nirvana/ #1.1 (closeness to the Universal Intellect¹⁰³).

Associated with: moral degradation, prison, psychiatric hospital, mental institutions, failure in life (suffering, pain, lack of financial resources, emptiness, suicide thoughts and attempts).

In the end: leads to death.

His secretive role is to push you closer to the Light, by showing you and allowing to experience the opposite side, therefore: enabling you to actually decide – due to choice you're given and the free will.

If you listen, to one of them: the latter has got a significant harder task to get to you (so if you follow your inner Satan: it's likely you would continue the streak of downward spiral for a delayed period of time e.g. alcoholic/ drug escapades, time of rest and destruction).

They both, work for your good but from a different angles: the first, listening to him – brings in long term success and happiness but for the short-term pay; the second, if you listen to him – it brings short-term reward for the price of long term failure.

¹⁰³ God.

Light represent the godlike state, Satan – darkness, your nature. You must beat your inner Satan first, to get what's desired (associated, with the inner will to take or to receive for self).

You're required to learn how to use the both voices, as they would work for your advantage: together. It's a challenge to resist the inner Satan at first, because he's very powerful.

The realization of goal and its completion, #2 – is the most important thing in life. Voices are created to serve this purpose, yet an appropriate ratio is required – Light vs Satan i.e. 3:1, 7:1, 10:1-2, 14:1-3/ best and more (where you listen e.g. 3, 7, 10 days – straight to Light and you give in 1, 1 or 2 days – appropriately to Satan, as to relax when working on your goals, which is required for the maximum performance¹⁰⁴). Make however sure, intoxication with drugs – that might be suggested, wouldn't take a toll¹⁰⁵ on the realization of your goal/ limit the last, to 1-2 consecutive days at max.

Mix, of pleasure (work) and rest (relax after – its completion/ side-tasks) is essential. Therefore, you perform a highest-motivation work and when the goal is reached: you can spend your time, the way – you've wanted (return always back to it, when you've given to your inner Satan – however limit activities only to those: which don't interrupt the ability to perform work). It's a challenge to come always back to the task: after a longer pause, so – do it wisely.

Delay, just delay the instant gratification: if you want to give in to the Satan, make it tomorrow – the next two days/ delay (seemingly, infinitely).

More of the techniques, #2.2.

If you're unsure – ask them to provide more answers: let them convince you – you're always in the everlasting search for the completion of your goals, #2. You're striving for a situation, where they've

Knowledge, Illumination and The Path of The Light Worker

You should listen to both, of the voices because – when they're consistent & working together: they lead to the expansion of knowledge, which is crucial. Know it, use to your advantage.

The only real choice you would ever have, is on the level of your thoughts.
They – can be reprogrammed, #0.1.

104
Where you're able to achieve more – with this break, than without it.

105
It always does, so screw it: take an additional day more to rest and relax which serves you. However stop to forever use stronger drugs like amphetamines, or those who bring the largest unseen harm i.e. marijuana/ hashish, etc. – if your goals don't involve it, #2.2 for details/ i.e. alcohol is only allowed if you must to – intoxicate yourself.

106
They always match your level of skill to manipulate them (as a trivia: it's the best way, to learn the best manipulation techniques – although you're required to progress, before). Lack of the appropriate brain programming/ #0.1: to perform the work given – might be the sole reason why Satan wins, #2/ all.

1.4. OVERCOMING YOUR NATURE/ PREFACE TO THE PROCESS

Issue is, that people want everything now: money, women, wealth and it's your nature.

A huge problem with it: is that until, you're ready/ prepared to build the success and maintain along with it, the wealth created – it's impossible to have.

This drive usually leads to immoral ventures, which provides an easy supply of money – ill-gotten, but they're perceived as giving all the desired in life.

Immoral actions don't pay, in the end – it's virtually all lost, #1.12 yet without the knowledge: you're not able to build any business which would sustain itself as you don't have the required traits to do so. It takes time, the process is hard and few accept their daily jobs, which pay little to none.

- If you would give-in to your in-born nature and won't restrict yourself to earn the required skill, qualities and knowledge – during the process, #2: it's likely not possible you would achieve anything out of ordinary.

OVERCOMING YOUR NATURE/ IN PRACTICE

NOW

You're here.

5-7 YEARS

You hide and restrict your desires/ ego/ nature – you do, what's required from you. (it's called, the process – #2)

LATER (AFTER)

You win in life, because you've attained skill, knowledge and traits required to perform, maintain and build a fortune for yourself = all the desired qualities and things, in life/ ending with it, at the end of this period.

It's easy, but the process in itself – ¹⁰⁷isn't: yet, you're able to complete it.

More time in fact: people spent in jails, due to their immoral activities ¹⁰⁸ – offenses.

It's the fight and choice – you must to take. The process would prepare you for the achievement.

- Your in-born nature is wrong, because it doesn't allows you – to change your situation if you let it, in your life. It only intensifies the problems. Your character is build of good/ bad sides and you've got a shade – if you let to allow yourself, to the bad side of it: you're likely lost – your life (it's an inner fight in your thoughts between Light vs. Satan, which represents nature and desires). Yes, you would be mad at others, who have struck the gold – received contracts which could be filled by 1/25th of its original price, but – it means nothing, because you're not involved: besides, money who are unearned/undeserved are wasted and lost/i.e. count for nothing. You're born with the will to get, but until it won't changed to will to bestow – you won't get the desired, or even if you: it won't be a pleasure/ it won't fulfill you (i.e. the bread of shame, due to restriction of an undeserved gift).

¹⁰⁷ Initially.

You're in this game alone – you're required to look for yourself/ avoid to look at anyone, because of choice. In immoral way of attracting wealth – you're loosing life, commonly as in a reactive way. Your efforts, however could be invested purposely in the process, #2: which is hard, but it's the way – which really pays off. If you still don't get it: until, you won't earn the knowledge in the process, #2 – you won't be able to get the desired (as lack of it, would lead to wasting your fortune – possibly earned/ fear of loss etc.). It's the only way – you're likely to invest your time in/ purposefully.

In practice – you'd be required, to hide your desires and to perform the work for 5-7 years of your time and complete it, to the end. This is why, so little win¹⁰⁹ really in life as they're not able to take the responsibility for it/ seeking for the easy¹¹⁰ ways out.

¹⁰⁹ Being itself, the reason – why those, who initially or short-term win – having all: loose basically on the moral level as they've didn't took their fate.

¹¹⁰ It is the easiest way out: in reality, but takes time to get there/ it's the only true way to achievement.

Until you won't change your nature – restrict the needs and desires and force yourself into the whirl of work, involved in the process, #2: to deliver, what's expected – you're likely to never attain your dreams.

[GODLIKE = ALL, COMPLETE & BEST] PARASITISM
[NATURE, EGO, SELF]

It would all come with the find, that: giving¹¹¹ is more pleasureful – than taking. You would learn in the process¹¹²/ #2: how to make those products/ businesses which would win you all the wanted in life, being fully prepared and achieving it, by your own – on you own means (receiving/ being led to an idea from the Laws operating here – as directly as it sounds). Know it.

There is abundance of ideas, but lack of those who are prepared to execute them.

¹¹¹ In fact, the high level of moral energy (Adoration+) is the secret to be chosen i.e. as an actor, manager amongst all the other and the key: to win, in life/ possible, only for those who changed their nature and started the process, #2.

¹¹² Which is a real Law: operating in this reality for the purpose of Creation, #1.11XF / reflecting God's requirements for you.

IN THE END, YOU WOULD BE THE TRUE WINNER.

Accept it and continue.

1.5. UNDERSTANDING CHOICES AND SHAPING YOUR DESTINY

What you see in this reality: is merely an effect of your core beliefs, because as what you believe – you see, in your reality. What happens in your world – either good or bad, is a mere reflection of the person you are/ was to others. Therefore, if you've not conquered your nature yet – you would get: what you given or caused and give or cause currently upon others. For instance, if people constantly attack you – you've might attacked them, in the past as it's brought always to you, after a few years time delay: to keep the grand illusion¹¹³ alive.

If you fear for example go to work, because of the emergency which would happen and you won't know how to repair it/ that your co-worker would scream at you/ that you would be criticized or badly rated – guess, what would enter your reality – in time. It's not said, that you need to avoid, to fear but more consciously choose the thoughts: you're holding i.e. go always to work with precognition that 'everything would rule itself positively'.

Furthermore, more work/ effort can be done to secure your fears: possibly learn more about the machines you're working with – to become an expert and avoid to give reasons others, to have bad opinions about you or yell at you. It enables your development.

Unconscious use of those mechanisms was presented in, #1.2 – #2.51 & #3.26.

You need to learn in life: to refuse, deny people help, reject those unworthy of you/ those, who don't further you goals or who bring no positive addition to your life. To focus only on those opportunities: which deserve it, are worthy of your time (the process, #2). You're also sometimes required to let go, just ignore certain things which don't serve or bring you closer to your goal: you're not perfect too and probably never would be.

Enforce morality upon others who have affected you or your actions – drop any fear. Disallow anyone, to treat you badly or without an appropriate and required respect.

Be prepared, for all the possibilities, all-time. Trust no one – to the very end, question always everything: be courageous in asking and feel no fear in it.

Know eternally that – if you avoid to think or do it insufficiently: disasters would strike. Avoid them at AL cost through your own preparation/ everywhere (to be repeated).

How to break your limitations? Force yourself to do so – by doing them, without a thought¹¹⁵/ however, re-think in mind and secure everything before.

#3.29A: Second stage technique might prove helpful, at certain points.

If you're not fulfilling the intents of this Creation/ #1.11xE: If you're like a cherished cow in Alaska, where farmer has got a family of four to feed. It doesn't matter that you've performed in the past – all, what counts is now. If you don't want to work anymore or continue to strive for your goals: you're loosing value¹¹⁶ and your fate is already known/ i.e. moral field, #1.1 as an essence. Be always preoccupied with a worthy goals and strive for their achievement, to the end of you

Act only pedantically – morally, forever.
Think to the end of your life.
Take the process, #2.
Continue it.

If you're not able to share this document with others, now – you likely won't be able to get for yourself in the years to come/ think and break: the illusion of lack.

Do it right now.

Create such content/ contribution in your life: which would enable you to live those elderly years – taking from it.

What's the highest understanding of all?

The highest secret of the secrets: is the knowledge that you're worth more alive, than dead.

If nothing is to be lost, by killing you in this reality – you're more likely/ destined to die.

All Laws set in motion, are set in such way: that if you develop yourself and your value increases day by day – like a stock share/ when you're wanting and continually striving for the greater: you're becoming worth more, to the Creator because of the process – you've taken, #2 and the willingness to conquer your fears, habits and desires.

Your goal is therefore: to become the most valuable asset which can't be replaced and you would live a prosperous life, because due to your versatility: you would be required to perform certain – important works, which only you can do, in this realm. You'd be cared of, because you've become such an important chain in it – it's the highest secret.

It might be only known, to those – who are or in the process of becoming: topping knowledge and skill, everyday.

It's delivered to you, the requirements needed to perform the work – you might Live virtually with no job for extended period of years, knowing always what to do. Get a protection on the spiritual level/ which might turn crazy every amphetamine/ hard-drug user in your vicinity due to level of it, by being surrounded through an army¹¹⁷ of bright, human-like entities which sole purpose is to protect you (as seen, when high; it means for purpose that they would watch you and sleep on a layer behind instance that they would watch your every step, e.g. in an accident – your eyes: they would watch and everyone would die; would touch you would get unharmed and everyone would die; would touch you and say what to do when i.e. falling asleep drunk – which goes beyond) or be exempted from the Laws operating here, in the full meaning of this word/ more. It's unknown and unimaginable for those, who are below this level/ any (of understanding and what's been confirmed as possible, the reality).

// Either way: you can start your career at the construction site as a person to dig holes or work

// with toxic substances with no protection – as you don't require it and demand it for self – in fear,
// of not being paid: which is an inner desire of the soul and body of relatively few/ #1.11xF.
// Nothing is wrong with it and usually everyone does starts so – especially the college graduates
// and those highly educated, commonly if the last: aren't followed.

The purpose of your life: is to repay the debt you were born here, with – by following your fate/ gaining all the experiences, required and attaining life you've dreamed always of, in the process, #2 (being the only way to do so, in real).

All knowledge – skill and ability, which you would attain in this passage: would be with you, so it's wise to invest your efforts in the areas¹¹⁸ of key importance.

Hidden behind the eyesight: visible only when used hard-drugs/ as they open chakras for entity possessions/ #2.2.

Take the process, #2.

It would enable you to do it and change your life for a Living dream. It's the only way.

Take it, then.

There is always a moral solution to any problem.

Everything in this realm happens for a reason – you might not know the last (at a time).

This realm is very friendly, but only for those who follow the intents of the Creation.
/ the process, #2

The life purpose might be to get the knowledge and skill which might prove helpful into securing: your stance in the next incarnation of your soul in the age, to come/ next life. It would enable you, to get i.e. a fortune as a result of your work in this life/ by having 'all' the knowledge e.g. about making a business: you can easily build one in the next life because you would be a 'born businessman' or a 'born salesman' due to it or by possessing a valuable skill like e.g. a musical one/ secure your comfort in the life after. You've might experience the lack of it, in your current incarnation – if you're still poor financially/ or not living yet the dreamed life. You're working forever for your own self-interest: for nobody – except self/ know it. Learn all the important areas: which might be helpful in the life to come.
You would build all of those in your current life/ #2.
